Georgia State Commission on Education Exposed King Communist Conspiracy to Subject South To Black Rule Revealed

The U.S. Supreme Court's "Black Monday" 1954 decision to abolish all Segregation laws in the South ignited riots and violence which have plagued this region ever since. Few people realize that the U.S. Communist Party had foreseen these events as far back as 1921 and secretly established front groups for negroes throughout the South.

Martin Luther King was an important cog in this wheel. He worked closely with the communist leaders he is photographed with on pages 8 and 9. Even Rosa Parks, who began the first black "non-violent" resistance in the Montgomery, Ala. bus boycott, was trained at the Communist Party Highlander Folk School, Mt. Eagle, Tennessee. On this page is SUPPRESSED NEWS detailing the background of this communist conspiracy.

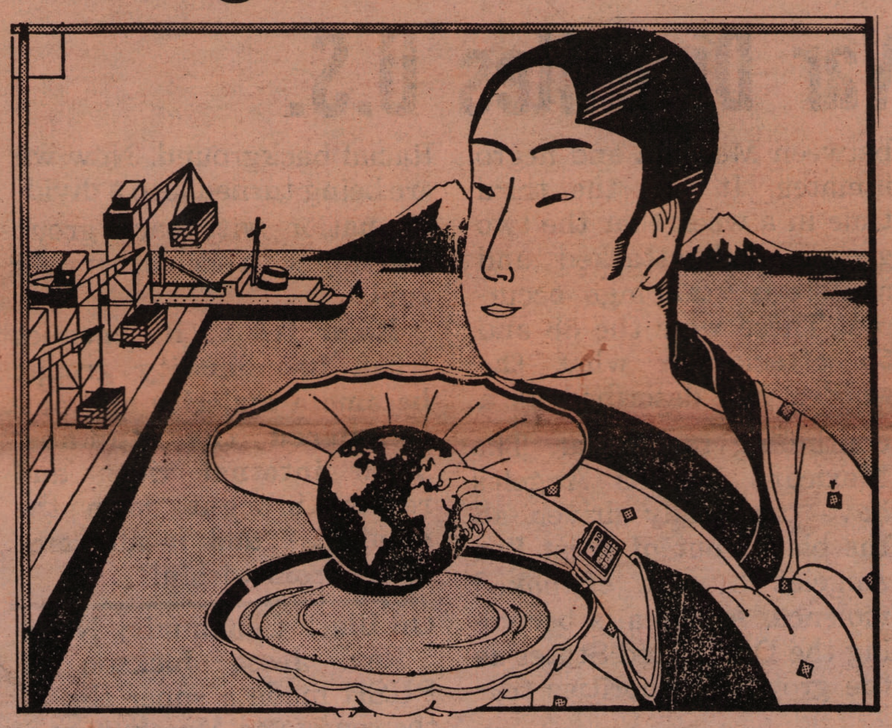
Documentation Destroyed By Liberal Governor

Gov. Marvin Griffin and Ga. Agriculture Commissioner Tom Linder established a special commission to investigate communist penetration of negro and liberal organizations in the South. Dr. J. B. Matthews, an astute investigator of Red subversion in America who also worked with the U.S. House Committee on UnAmerican Activities helped compile the information reproduced on this page. The State of Georgia officially certified this information and the Georgia Commission on Education published the data uncovered by Dr. Matthews and reproduced in part on pages 8 and 9.

When Gov. Carl Sanders and his liberal cohorts took over the Georgia State Capitol they destroyed all this material. Not one single copy was left unshredded in the offices of the Ga. Dept. of Education. Thankfully The Thunderbolt has a copy of all of these vital documents and the first part is published in this issue. We know that it will shock some people who believe that so-called "humanitarian civil rights" leaders like Martin Luther King, Rosa Parks, Benjamin Mays and others were either communists or knowingly worked in alliance with Red Fronts especially established to entice negroes and liberals into the communist movement.

Study this rare and suppressed document and your eyes will be opened to how vast and deep the communist conspiracy is. You can help by ordering and distributing extra copies of this issue to awaken your friends and neighbors.

"Gang of Four Asian Nations" Stealing Your Job



Japan, Korea, Hong Kong and Singapore will describe what kind of work you will do, your wage scale and how low your standard of living will be set.

Computer Jobs Moving To Asia

A so-called employment expert has appeared on all major TV talk shows. He predicted that in the future America will have no heavy industry such as steel mills, auto factories, ship building, etc. His highly touted idea was that in the future we will all be sitting at tables assembling computers and high-tech equipment. Sounds nice, doesn't it — BUT THE FOLLOWING IS REALLY HAPPENING.

Atari computers and video has moved all of its factories to Asia. The Atari plant in Sunnyvale, Calif., closed laying off 1,700 workers permanently. Apple and Wang computers have moved along with IBM and Digital which moved to the Orient several years ago and Intel and National followed suit.

Rockefeller's Chase Manhattan Bank forecaster, Lawrence Chimerine, said these firms are moving to Hong Kong, Taiwan, Malaysia, Mexico and the Philippines because, "competition is forcing companies to keep down labor costs."

Intel and National computers have been in Asia for a long time and the only major computer firms left whose labor force is entirely U.S.A. are Texas and Commodore.

Boston College made a study in 1975 of 654,000 laid off mill workers and found that only three percent ever found decent paying jobs through retraining in the high-tech field. The study found: "A worker laid off in heavy industry has a five times greater chance ending up as a worker at McDonald's or K-Mart than in the high-tech field."

This flight of U.S. industry out of America is treason to the nation and our citizens! It must be stopped and only stringent trade barriers which keep out such products can save all of our workers from ending up earning coolie minimum wages. The very birthright we owe our offspring in being able to earn a decent living in the future hinges on the outcome of this trade war and big business right here at home and the Congress have betrayed the White working people thus far, by not securing our future job opportunities!

Survey Shows Blacks Avoid Work

Finds Blacks Do Not Want To Work

Before the 1950s America had no large scale welfare program. Everyone worked and no one starved. Today the vast majority of negroes had rather live off welfare programs than work. Richard Cohen, a Jew, wrote an interesting column in the Washington Post of June 30. He said that Washington, D.C. is 75% black and logically one would think this percentage would make up the racial composition of the city's many street sales vendors.

He suggested the reader walk down K. St., N.W. and see all the street vendors selling items, one might find in an indoor "flea market." But the question arises, out of 20 vendors Cohen saw only two blacks. The rest were Vietnamese, Koreans, Pakistani, South Americans, Cubans, Iraqis, etc.

Cohen then rationalizes why negroes do not want to work by declaring:

"The evidence is all around us, though, that an equal chance frequently means no chance at all. Unless you subscribe to some sort of racist doctrine about the inherent inferiority of blacks, you have to conclude that something else is wrong — that slavery, discrimination and, in its own way, welfare, have deprived an American racial group of the chance to develop the most rudimentary entrepreneurial skills."

NOTE: Cohen in effect casts self-hate onto the entire White race. Because the blacks were once slaves and discriminated against is why they don't like to work — Nonsense! White "indentured servants" were like slaves and they succeeded. The Irish, Italians, and others were discriminated against at one time and they succeeded. The black slaves had their lives saved because the tribal leaders who enslaved them in the first place would have either tortured them to death or eaten them — thus the blacks brought to America were lucky — WE SAVED THEIR LIVES! Liberals and Jews conveniently forget these important facts when they seek to unload a guilt-complex upon Whites for the "plight of the poor downtrodden blacks."

Stop New Immigration Bill In House

Refugees Leave Other States For California

Will Asians Or Mexicans Take Over California?

Whites and negroes may both be forced out of California the way the Hispanic and Asiatic population is skyrocketing. One reason the Asiatics are growing so rapidly is that they are moving there after do-gooder church groups have first settled them in other parts of the country. Out of 10,000 Vietnamese settled in Spokane, Wash., only 2,000 are left. All the rest have moved to Southern California.

There are two reasons for this movement. One is that they like the climate better and the other is more generous welfare benefits. In California a two-parent family with unemployed adults and relatives can collect additional payments. In Oregon and Washington the unemployed adult members of the "family" cannot collect.

Merced, Calif. has an unemployment rate of 16.9%. Over 7,000 Indochinese have moved into this county of only 147,000 people forcing schools into double sessions and causing American workers to lose jobs because Asians will work cheaper. There have been pitched battles between Asian and Hispanic and negro street gangs. Over half the Asiatics in America live in California. They have caused a serious strain on local welfare budgets, schools, and public medical facilities.

The Lee Nughan family of 16 left Spokane, Wash. for Los Angeles where welfare benefits are more liberal.

There are over 1.7 million Asiatics in California today and this number is expected to double to 3.5 million within 15 years. Their birth rate is very high and along with the present immigration law which allows aliens to bring close relatives here from Asia this figure is considered "conservative." OUR FOREFATHERS WARNED US AGAINST ALLOWING THE "YELLOW PERIL" OF ASIA TO INVADE OUR SHORES AND NOW WE ARE PAYING THE CONSEQUENCES.

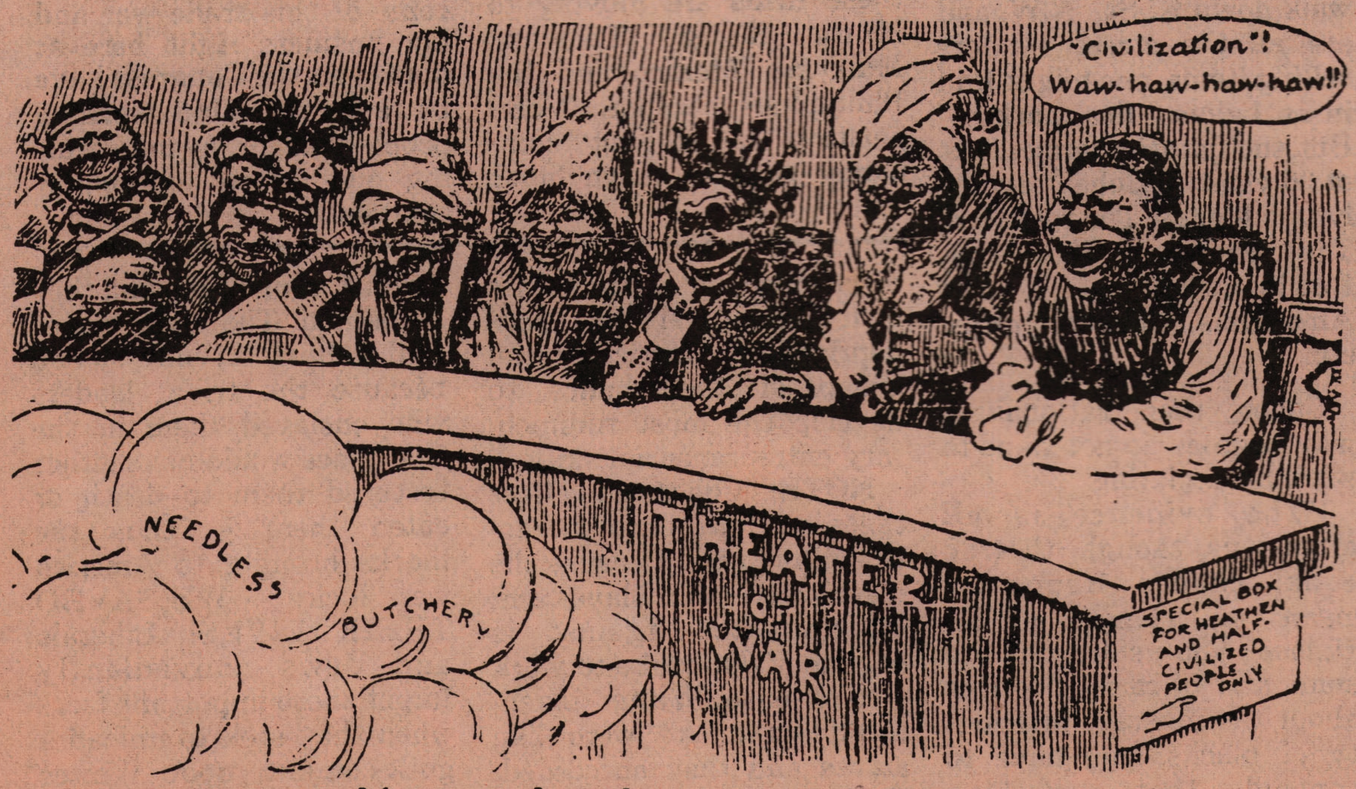
Race War Disunites U.S.

Blacks Vs. Mexican Warfare

California's Folson prison has reported further rioting between Mexican and negro inmates. It was the third time in a week that the two groups had attacked and numerous stabbings occurred. These were the 58 and 59 attacks in what the warden has described as a continuing racial war. The Mexicans in Los Angeles have practically driven all the blacks out of West Los Angeles by use of naked violence. America is becoming the Dis-United States as the growing minorities tear one another apart along with the nation. One of our chief strengths in the past was our cohesiveness as a people. We have unity through our common European heritage, Christian religion and White Racial background. Now we are being turned into a divided nation with each group warring with each other over turf.

Rome fell to its enemies when its minority groups became a majority and outnumbered the Romans. Then internal riots and revolts brought down the empire — and it all came about from within!!

"Calgary News," Canada, 1914 cartoon predicted that Whites killing fellow White people in World War I would result in victory for the colored "Third World" peoples!



No wonder they are laughing!

On Black Community News

Rev. Jesse Jackson of PUSH made a super slip of the tongue on March 29 at a Boston University forum. When asked; "Don't you think blacks must become physicists and engineers?"

Rev. Jackson replied: "What are you talking about — they can't even do arithmetic!"

California Opposes Amnesty

California State Senate President David Roberti has testified in Washington against granting Amnesty to illegal aliens. He declared there were hundreds of thousands in California who would immediately be eligible for welfare. This would cost California taxpayers up to $1.2 billion a year. While it would take three years for illegal aliens to become voting citizens they would be eligible for welfare immediately.

In order to "sweeten" the amnesty part of the immigration bill the Reagan Administration has offered the states $4 billion in extra money for welfare. Sen. Roberti said this was just "a drop in the bucket" and would be distributed among all states and not nearly enough to help.

Emergency Alert — Present Status of Immigration Bill

The NSRP continues to urge members and all supporters to write their Congressmen to vote against the immigration bill. Our two chief objections is that 15 million or more illegal aliens will be granted "amnesty" for citizenship and the bill does not limit "political refugees" who can enter America.

The Senate has passed the Simpson-Mazzoli immigration bill with these objectionable features. The present law is by far more favorable than the new bill. IT CAN BE KILLED IN THE HOUSE!!

The Senate version of the bill would require all employers to ask job seekers to verify that they are citizens with a birth certificate or other document. The House version would only require those who in the past have been cited for hiring illegal aliens to be subject to this provision. It is of great interest to note the more liberal House version is backed by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and the more stringent Senate requirement is supported by the AFL-CIO.

Other bad amendments include one by the House Education Committee which would provide for stiff fines ($2,000 to $4,000) for any employer who discriminated against a job applicant who is Hispanic. The House Agriculture Committee amendment allows "farm guest workers" — mainly from Mexico and the West Indies to stay up to 11 months (most never return home). The Energy Committee amendment calls for emergency Medicaid for aliens who are not citizens. (No wonder Social Security is in trouble). Aliens can now bring their elderly relatives here and they are eligible for SSI payments after a stay of only 30 days. Write your Congressman today to vote against the immigration reform bill!

Refugees Killing Wildlife

Arizona Game and Fish Dept. has reported that Asiatic refugees are killing the park's deer, elk and bears. The reason is that the Asians believe that pulverized deer antlers and ground-up bear gall bladders make aphrodisiacs. Their refugee customers will pay from $150 to $200 for a three month supply of the potion.

Bankrupt Nations Could Trigger Next "Great Depression"

"Bank Will Settle For Interest" — Volcker

Financial Experts Explain World Debt

Federal Reserve Chairman Paul Volcker on July 5 reported that Soviet satellite countries including Russia owe $81.5 billion. Of the total $750 billion, two-thirds was loaned by banks whose governments have guaranteed repayments. This leaves one-third owed to banks who made private loans.

Volcker said there will be no "doomsday scenario" because if any debtor nation defaults, "the Western governments would take over the affected banks, rather than allow a general financial crisis to spread." He added that the "ground rules" have already been established for the 17 very large banks "if one of them should get into serious trouble." (Note: Meaning the American taxpayer will jump in and bail the super-rich bankers out!!)

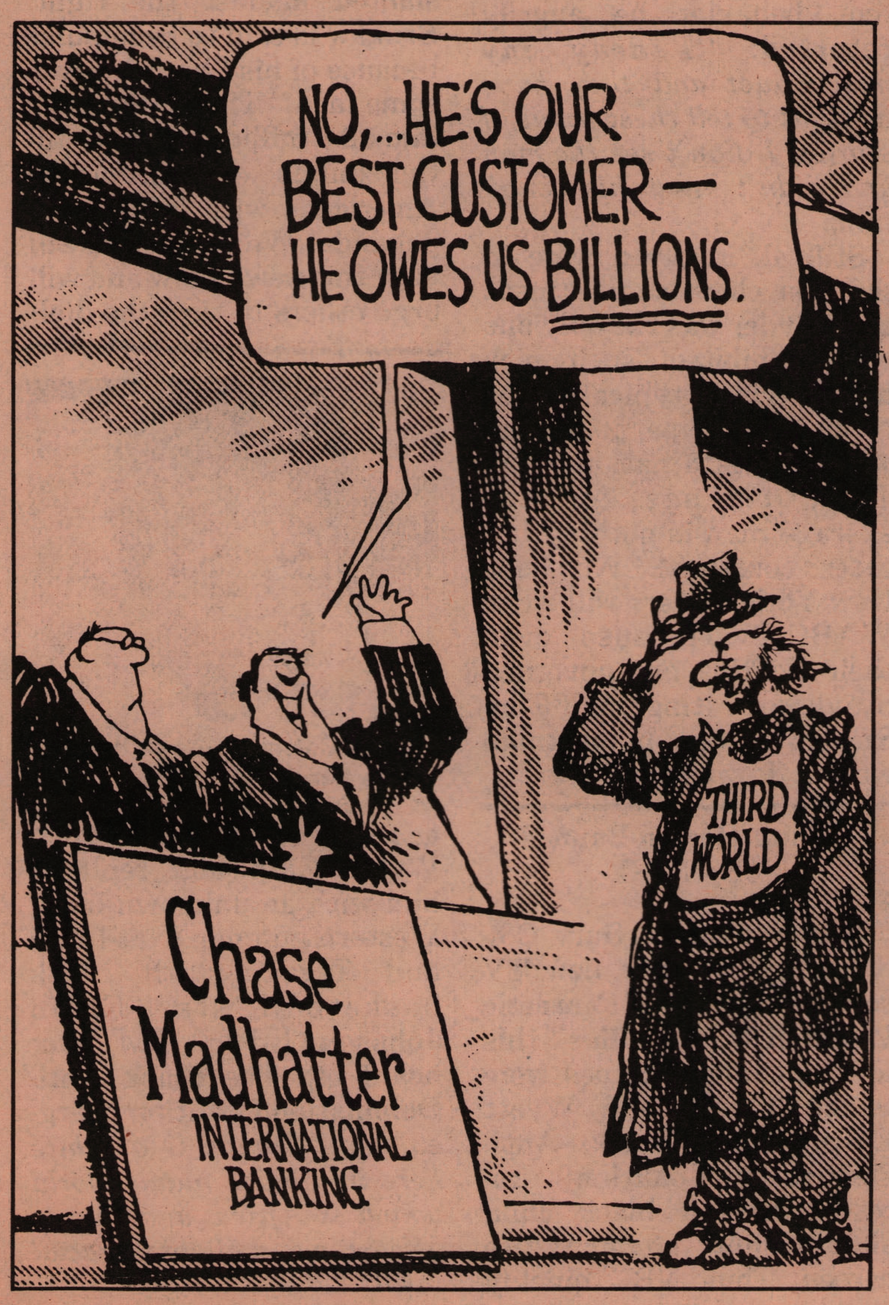
When asked what would happen if a debtor nation defaulted on their loans, Volcker replied: "Nobody knows for sure what would happen. It has never happened before. Argentina, Brazil and Mexico are in the deepest trouble."

When asked: "Will these loans ever be repaid?" Volcker's surprise answer was: "IN ONE SENSE NO, AND IN ANOTHER SENSE, HOPEFULLY! The issue is not whether Brazil as a country will ever repay the more than $90 billion they owe creditors. It probably will not. The question is — will the Brazilians and other developing countries have sufficient earnings from exports to service individual loans as they come due!"

Paul A. Volcker admits loans can never be repaid.

THUS THE CAT IS OUT OF THE BAG — THE BIG BANKS WILL BE HAPPY JUST TO COLLECT THE INTEREST AND THUS ENSLAVE THESE NATIONS TO DEBT FOR ALL TIME TO COME!!

It is just like your credit card — the store makes more profit on the interest you pay and will be more than happy for you to never pay off the principal. They want you to pay the interest forever.



Your Tax Dollars To IMF Bail Out Big Banks

The U. S. Senate has approved a bill to give the International Monetary Fund $8.4 billion dollars to pay a small handful of big international banks money the debtor nations cannot repay. The Senate voted 55 to bail out the banks with 34 opposing and 11 "gone fishing."

Here's how your senators voted.

Gone Fishing—11

Rep. Byron Dorgan (D.-N.J.) opposes the bill, declaring, "The $8.4 billion will come from the U. S. taxpayers' pockets and go to the developing countries, who in turn will send it to the international bankers, for interest they owe on outstanding loans." He further adds that the American taxpayer should not have to bail out big banks who have made irresponsible and reckless loans to backward countries.

Just ponder this fact — in 1978 the debtor countries only owed the West $240 billion and today, 1983, they owe $750 billion — THEIR DEBT TRIPLED IN JUST 5 YEARS!! The IMF says they need the increase current reserves from the $66 billion now on hand to $98 billion. Why should America's working taxpayers bail out the big banks? Opponents in the House charge the banks will realize substantial fees or profits for just renegotiating the loans. In effect we will be rewarding them with big profits for making bad loans! The U. S. Government should stop the cutbacks in aid to needy Americans if we have extra billions to bail out greedy banks.

Which Are The Bankrupt Nations?

The advanced nations of the West and North America have foolishly and perhaps conspiringly loaned $700 billion to nations, many of whom will never be able to pay the money back. For this reason the International Monetary Fund (IMF) is asking for $8.4 billion from the American taxpayers to bail out the banks by reimbursing them for the payments the debtor nations are failing to make on their loans. The following is a survey of those who owe the largest debts and the question of their ability to make repayment:

- Brazil — owes $85 billion and is two years behind on repayments and seeks new IMF loans of $5 billion to pay interest charges. Brazil will default because it has no hope of repayment. Brazil has an inflation rate of 117%.
- Mexico — owes $84 billion and was given a special emergency loan of $17 million by Pres. Reagan. The peso was devalued to 150 to the dollar. Mexico will never repay simply because of their population explosion.
- Venezuela — owes $32 billion and was forced to postpone $9 billion due this year. They may be able to eventually repay the loans with future oil productions.
- Argentina — owes $40 billion and seeks postponement of $11 billion in repayments and seeks $1.5 billion in new loans.
- Peru — owes $11 billion and is unable to make payments. She seeks $450 million in new loans.
- Nigeria — owes $15 billion and seeks postponement of $1 billion. Even with oil production the money will never be repaid.
- Chile — owes $17 billion and seeks extension of payments and $1.3 billion in new loans.
- South Korea — owes $20 billion.
- Philippines — owes $21 billion.
- Poland — owes $27 billion with doubtful means of repayment.
- Romania — owes $10 billion with a crumbling economy stifled by its Red bureaucracy. Has missed repayments two years in a row and wants $735 million in interest postponed this year.

Four Countries Bankrupt

These debtor countries and 100 others owe U.S., European and Japanese banks over $700 billion. At least one-third of this amount will never be recovered. The bankruptcy of Brazil, Mexico, Argentina, Poland and Romania are being covered up and they owe a total of $240 billion. The Jew international banker, Felix Rohatyn, one of the most powerful men in the world states:

"Instead of maintaining the fiction that these short-term, high-interest loans must be repaid on time it is better for both banker and borrowers to stretch out existing loans to 25 or 30 years at much lower interest rates. A $300 billion in loans at 6% would save the debtor nations $15 to $20 billion per year and stave off repudiation of the debt. An agency similar to the Reconstruction Finance Corp. is needed to save shaky banks."

Thus the American taxpayers have been asked to give the IMF some $8.4 billion to bail out the banks by repaying them the interest bankrupt nations fail to meet. We already gave the IMF $16 billion and this $8.4 billion is a 50% increase. The U.S. contributes 40% of the funds in the IMF. The American taxpayers cannot afford such a giveaway.

It should be made clear that these figures in no way relate to the normal U.S. Foreign Aid program of which Israel received a $500 million increase this year to $2.55 billion (half of which is in grants — gifts — they do not have to repay). Israel receives one-fourth of all U.S. Foreign Aid which caused a quarter of a billion to be cut from aid to other much more needy and deserving countries this year alone.

What banker Royatyn and others want is to postpone "THE TICKING DEBT TIME BOMB." They will leave this problem for future generations to swallow but it may go off within the next five years as this editor believes. The second Great Depression will come soon when this huge balloon bursts.

Soviets Made Fools Out Of U.S. Again

The Soviet Union told all its satellite states to borrow money from Uncle Sap and not the USSR. We have loaned billions to Laos, Tanzania, Zimbabwe, Mozambique, Romania, Yugoslavia, Poland, East Germany, Hungary — and not a dollar came out of Russia's pocket!

NBC's Brokaw Gives Interview To Marxist Paper

Survey Proves Rich Reds Run TV

Survey Shows Rich Leftists Control TV

Public Opinion Magazine has conducted the first study of the powerful elite which controls every facet of TV. Stanley Rothman studied the 104 top TV presidents, producers and directors. The average viewer is a working class White family, salaried, religious, family-oriented and conservative. Here is what the poll discovered about those who dominate TV.

1) Some 59% are Jews (yet they are only 3% of the nation's total population), 25% Protestants and 12% Catholics.

2) A surprising 93% do not attend a synagogue or church.

3) A large majority, 75%, consider themselves liberals and only 14% say they are conservative, and 11% moderates.

4) A surprising 80% voted for Hubert Humphrey in 1968 and 82% supported George McGovern.

5) The average income for 63% was $200,000 annually, while 25% made over $500,000 and only 4% made under $75,000. STILL THE MAJORITY SUPPORTED REDISTRIBUTION OF THE WEALTH BY THE GOVERNMENT THROUGH HIGHER TAXATION AND GREATER WELFARE SPENDING. (Note: Most have their wealth protected through tax shelters and thus these "Liberals" would redistribute the "wealth" of the White working people through high taxation and expropriation).

6) A whopping 97% are in favor of abortion.

7) Some 80% disagree with the proposition that homosexuality is wrong and 86% say they should be allowed to be school teachers.

8) A majority do not necessarily believe that elected officials know what is best for the people. (Note: Perhaps these elitist Marxists believe that a nation is better governed by a small chosen race of people?)

They Want To Brainwash Your Family

Many average citizens think they must be out of step with the overwhelming majority when they view the kooky, unreal and trendy world of the "hip," fast living swingers who socialize with interracial couples and left-wing people in TV programs. The truth is that those who run TV are "pro-change, Marxists, who march to change America politically from the right to the left into a Marxist state. This is their final goal! Lenin said: "Give me the youth for a decade and I will give you a communist for life!"

Note: It should be noted that all three major TV networks are either under Jew ownership, or Jew corporate domination. NBC is owned by the David Sarnoff family through controlling stock ownership in the parent RCA corp. CBS has been run by the Jew William Paley since 1948 who has personally appointed every underling. He has controlling stock-ownership ($90 million worth) in CBS and is personally worth $140 million. ABC has Leonard Goldenson as Chairman and Chief Executive since 1953. He makes all major decisions for his network.

Fire Tom Snyder

Tom Snyder — A Heartless Newsman

Tom Snyder was host for the nationally syndicated "Tomorrow TV Show." His caustic remarks and insults caused viewer ratings to drop and he was cancelled. Snyder then was hired on as New York evening news anchorman for WABC (Channel 7). (Leonard Goldenson, President of ABC-TV, controls WABC.) Only The New York Post reported the following news story.

Tom Snyder was aboard Pan Am Flight 818 from L.A. to N.Y. when a fellow passenger in the first class section had a heart attack. Fellow passengers reported that Snyder, "was laughing about it." Then when the dying man began throwing up, Snyder laughed louder, declaring, "I didn't think the food was that bad." When the Captain announced the jet would make an emergency landing in Kansas City so the victim could be rushed to a hospital, Snyder protested: "I don't see why 350 people should be inconvenienced just for one man."

When the flight finally arrived in New York a TV crew filmed an interview with Snyder who praised the stewardesses for the fine job they did in administering emergency aid to the passenger who died. (He was a physician from New Rochelle, N.Y.) Snyder said he was very sorry such a tragedy took place. When other passengers told reporters of Snyder's abhorrent behavior he angrily retorted: "I deny any misconduct and they have no right to tell these kinds of stories. I didn't see the man and didn't know his condition."

Still all involved were in the first class compartment and Snyder was the only one who exhibited such sick humor. He is typical of the New York type journalist who permeate national TV. Their feelings for the average man is nothing but utter contempt. We hope New York readers will write WABC-TV because even their policies are governed by viewer ratings and Tom Snyder is one hatchetman we can do without.

Tom Brokaw — biased reporting.

NBC-TV Tom Brokaw A Marxist — Is This Why Roger Mudd Was Demoted?

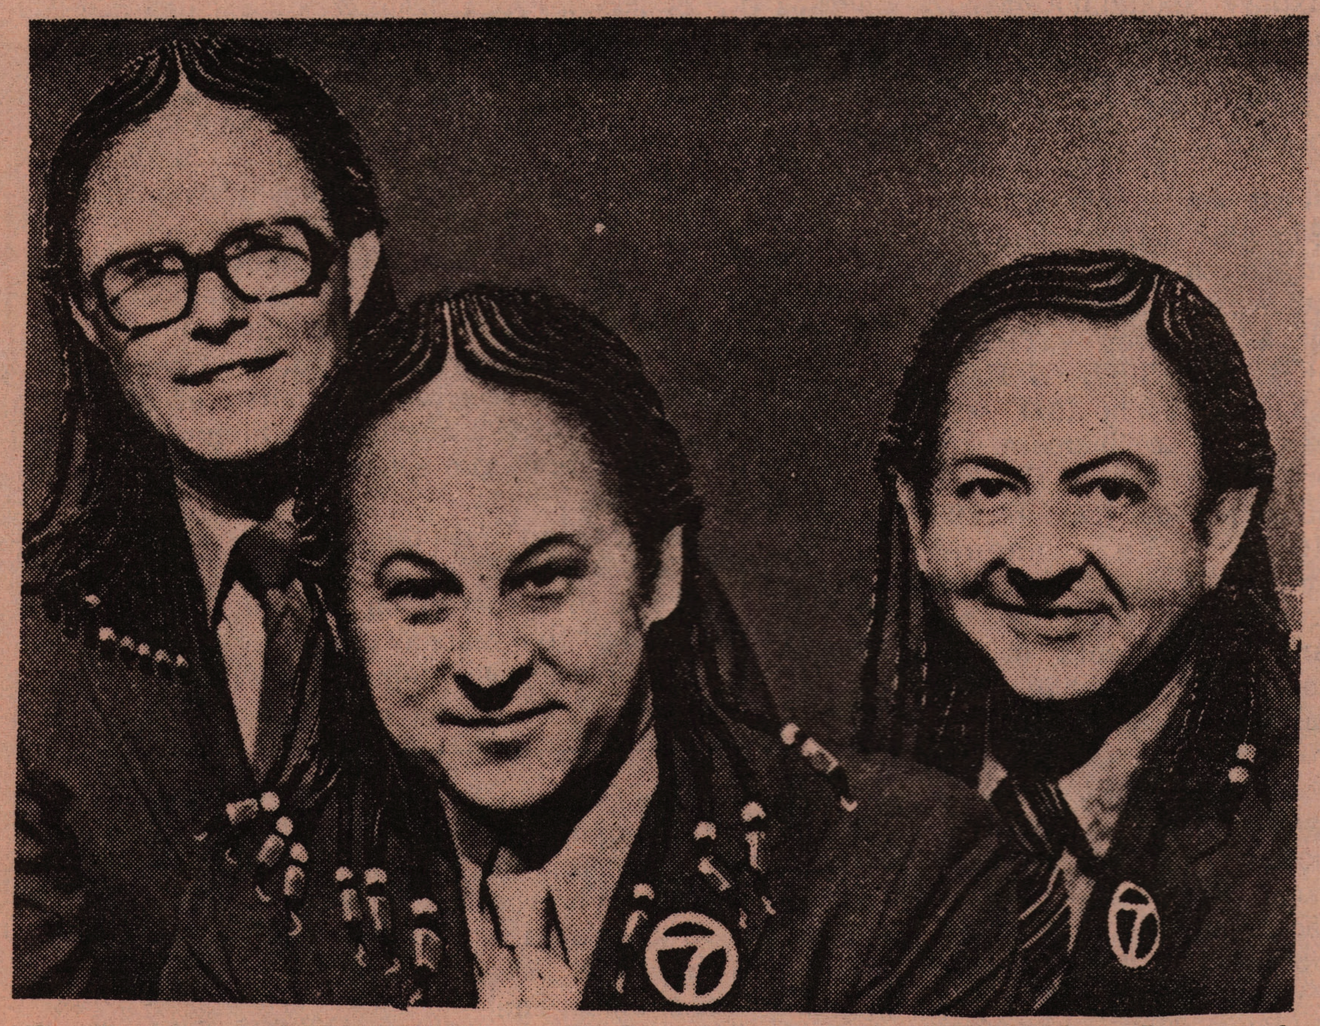
NBC-TV "co-anchorman" Roger Mudd has been dismissed from the nightly news, leaving Tom Brokaw solely in charge. Mudd has been known to object to Brokaw's leftist leanings along with those of his NBC News supervisors. The firing of Roger Mudd came just as Brokaw politically "came out of the closet" with an interview in Marxist "Mother Jones' Magazine."

This is the first time Brokaw has revealed his personal political views. In the interview Brokaw denounced the free enterprise theory of "supply and demand." He said only a small band of "zealots" believe it works. He said military aid to anti-communist forces in El Salvador was a "sham" and "outrageous." The magazine took advantage of this interview with such a "prominent personage" to declare this proves "debate can inch to the left without being declared out of bounds."

Boycott NBC-TV News

This situation is such an outrage that all patriotic Americans should refuse to watch NBC News. Actually CNN Cable News has proven to be the fairest and presented live the last TV interview given by J. B. Stoner. "The Nightly News," as Brokaw's program calls itself, is highly slanted against the right. Brokaw is said to be popular because of his "boyish handsome face." Thus NBC pays him $2.5 million a year to fill the minds of uninformed Americans with leftist propaganda. We no longer will view this news show and will urge others to turn the dial.

"Sick Photo of the Month"



San Francisco (naturally), TV "personalities" on Channel 7, Van Amburg, Jerry Jensen and Peter Gidding wear new Afro hair style to demonstrate their unfailing belief in racial equality.

Gary Coleman — can have no White heroes.

White Heroes Banned By NBC

Negro TV star Gary Coleman will be in a new TV series called 'The Fantastic World of D. C. Collins" this fall. Coleman's heroes were to be Tarzan and Wyatt Earp. The "Black Anti-Defamation Coalition" protested that a black child should not have White heroes. Thus NBC quickly acquiesced and dropped Wyatt Earp and replaced him with an unknown black Western gunman (Nat Love) and Tarzan with black basketball star Ervin Johnson (whom few ever heard of). The Black Anti-Defamation Coalition charged that "Tarzan is a White hero in a black man's world which is Africa, and this is offensive and almost a racial insult."

Anne Cox Chambers Brings In "Dayton Mafia" Reds To Take Over Atlanta Newspapers

Ohio Clique Of David Easterly, Eddie Sears, Chuck Glover and Tom Teepen — Kick Georgians Out!

"Dayton Mafia" Takes Over Atlanta Newspapers

Anne Cox Chambers and her sister, Barbara Cox Anthony, are the two richest women in America — worth over $1 billion. The Atlanta Constitution/Journal has long been part of the Cox Enterprises and is the largest family-owned newspaper in America. Anne Chambers runs the newspaper through her brother-in-law, Garner Anthony, who is the real power behind the throne. She gives the orders and Garner carries them out!

The Days of The Long Knives at Atlanta Newspapers

The Washington Post on Nov. 10 reported that the Israeli Embassy made a survey of every major newspaper in America and found that The Atlanta Constitution / Journal was the most pro-Zionist paper in the nation. Since Israel is a socialist state this also means the Atlanta newspapers are also the most pro-Marxist publications in America. Many elected Georgia officials refer to it as the Southern edition of the "Communist Daily Worker."

Anne Cox Chambers' "Dayton Daily News" was the flagship of Cox Enterprises. It is here that radical abolitionist Marxist journalists were trained in the art of propaganda and bulldozing politicians. It is said that whoever controls Atlanta, the business capital of the Southeast, can control the South! With the city population skyrocketing, the Cox family is now building its new headquarters building for Cox Enterprises in Atlanta and the Cox family members have all made their homes here.

Mass Firings of Georgians

The 9th floor executive mahogany suite of offices has witnessed a radical purge. Here is the list of back-stabbings which have drastically changed both the appearance and content of the Atlanta newspapers. All of those fired were Southerners.

1) President of Atlanta Newspapers, Tom Wood, was given the job of consolidating the Constitution and Journal into one newspaper. He fired scores of reporters, writers and office workers, including Constitution editor Hal Gulliver.

2) Tom Wood was then fired himself and replaced by David Easterly of the Dayton newspaper who is now the new president of both the Constitution and Journal. It was Easterly who broke the union at the Dayton paper and instituted the mass firings of workers. He is rapidly doing the same thing in Atlanta.

3) Jack Tarver, popular publisher of Cox newspapers, is being replaced by Chuck Glover, 56, former president of the Dayton Daily News who was brought down to be the new editor of both Atlanta newspapers after they eased long-time editor Jim Minter out.

4) John Schaffner, managing editor of the Atlanta newspapers, was given the unpleasant task of firing their best reporters, Robert Coran and Ms. B. J. Phillips, for writing a criticism of a Georgia Power Company rate increase request.

Richard Zoglin, TV critic, resigned in disgust just as nationally known investigative writer Jack Nelson did in 1965 when his pay was only $190 a week — despite the fact he had won a Pulitzer Prize six years earlier. Hal Gulliver was fired as editor of the Constitution and replaced by Tom Teepen.

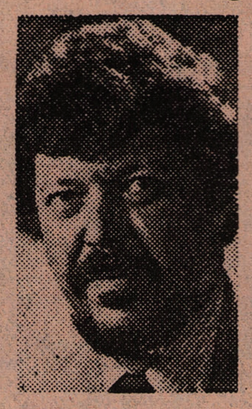
5) EDITOR JIM MINTER WAS FORCED BY GARNER ANTHONY TO FIRE SCHAFFNER WHO WAS THEN REPLACED BY EDDIE SEARS — ALSO, OF COURSE, FROM THE DAYTON PAPER!

6) Immediately after the stab in the back, Jim Minter himself is demoted out of the 9th floor suite down to the back of the newsroom close to his coming final departure at the back door!

7) Bill Shipp, long-time Constitution writer, was bypassed and the most radical Marxist writer at the Dayton Daily News, Tom Teepen, was brought down to become editor of the Constitution. Shipp is said to be in a state of shock and in such poor physical condition he cannot resign with any hope of landing another job. At age 49 he has a long wait for retirement and must endure the overbearing supervision of the "Dayton Mafia."

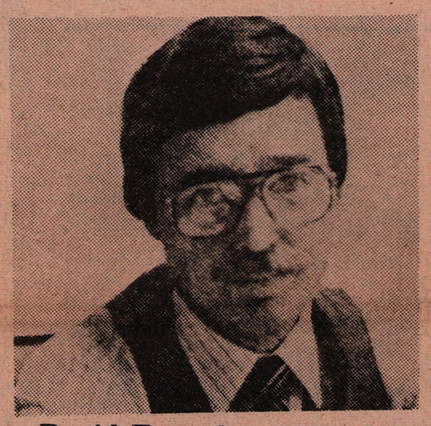
Anne Cox Chambers — Richest woman in the world owns Atlanta Newspapers. She is listed in the Atlanta phone book as A. C. Chambers, 426 W. Paces Ferry Rd., N.W., Atlanta, Ga., phone 233-0508.

Tom Minter — on his way out.



Tom Teepen — Dayton Ohio Marxist

Bill Shipp — burning because Teepen was brought in to take Editor's job he was promised.



David Easterly of Dayton is new President of both Atlanta Newspapers. He was Ms. Chambers' personal choice.

Newspaper Chain Owned By Cox Enterprises

These leftist newspapers are the mind molders of Marxism: Atlanta Constitution / Journal, American-Statesman, Austin, Texas; Dayton Ohio Daily News/Journal; Daily Sentinel, Grand Junction, Colo.; Daily News/Journal, Longview, Texas; The News, Lufkin, Texas; The Tribune/Arizonan, Mesa, Ariz.; Miami, Florida News; Daily News/Post/Times, Palm Beach, Florida; The News, Port Arthur, Texas; Daily News Sun, Springfield, Ohio; Daily News, Tempe, Ariz.; Tribune-Herald, Waco, Texas.

Manipulation And Firings — Cox Traits

The merger of the Dayton Daily News with its evening paper is a duplicate of what has occurred in Atlanta. The Atlanta Journal is now merely the afternoon edition of the morning Constitution. Their staffs are the same and the morning feature articles are simply moved around a bit in the later Journal edition with a few news wire stories decorating the front page.

The Constitution/Journal had been a profit-making concern but news-wise it pales when compared with such publications as The Washington Post, New York Times, Miami Herald, Chicago Tribune, etc. The Atlanta newspaper will spend as little as possible on investigative reporting, always being careful not to step on the toes of big business. There is no original material such as national or overseas news reporting. The Atlanta newspapers are merely an advertising sheet and their only real emphasis on "punch and hard attacks," as Tom Teepen explains it, is his vicious, left-wing editorial page.

The Atlanta newspapers regularly blast Georgia Gov. Joe Frank Harris and Speaker of the House Tom Murphy. Their goal is to take over the State of Georgia with their own Cox approved candidates such as Bo Ginn (one of their top favorites — or a Norman Underwood — all ultra liberals). Tom Teepen describes himself as a Kennedy liberal who knows how to run a "biracial city."

Thus the Dayton Mafia seeks to not only run Atlanta, Georgia, but eventually influence all of the South politically. The following are the "Dayton Mafia" members who have seized control — Eddie Sears, Managing Editor; Chuck Glover, Editor; David Easterly, President; and Tom Teepen, Editor of Constitution Editorial page.

TV critic Richard Zoglin's resignation statement read:

"Since the reorganization of the Atlanta newspapers, the decline in quality has been sudden and appalling. Fine writers are being wasted, trivia is being elevated to page one news, and the substantive investigative stories that were once the hallmark of this section have all but disappeared."

Negative

By Douglas B. Feaver
Washington Post Staff Writer

The Israeli ambassador to the United States told editors of The Washington Post last week that columns of opinion and editorials in The Post about the recent Mideast situation have been more negative toward Israel than those in other U.S. newspapers the embassy has monitored.

The ambassador, Moshe Arens, had requested the meeting with Post editors and presented them with a document listing 48 major U.S. newspapers and assigning them both a "number" and a "rating." Thirty-one of the papers received negative numbers and ratings; three received neutral, or zero, numbers and ratings, and 14 received positive numbers and ratings.

The number assigned The Post was minus 53. The Chicago Sun-Times was listed at minus 34, the Los Angeles Times at minus 33, The Philadelphia Inquirer at minus 32 and The New York Times at minus 25. The Atlanta Constitution had the most favorable number, a plus 56.

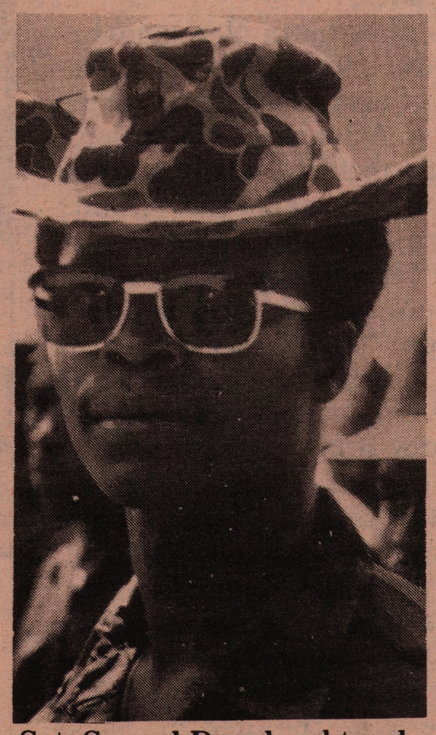
U.S. Sponsored Liberia Wrecked By Revolt

Liberia's top government leaders moments before their execution. The day before all were millionaires, but life is cheap in Africa.

Liberia — America's Contribution To America

Liberia was founded by the American Colonization Society for the resettlement of all freed slaves back in their native homeland. From 1847 until 1865 some 45,000 slaves were returned to Africa. Beginning from that time down to this day,



Sgt. Samuel Doe slaughtered Liberia's leaders.

American foreign aid has supported Liberia. The U.S. dollar is their official currency and their constitution is an exact copy of ours.

For 100 years, this nation of two million people has been ruled by 12 key black families who have 5,000 members. Pres. William Tolbert, Jr., 67, headed the "True Whig Party" which was the only legal Party which controlled the press and radio. Liberia was called the most stable nation in black Africa which saw 45 successful coups over the past 20 years.

The New Revolutionary Government

Pres. Tolbert was murdered in his palace when Sgt. Samuel Doe, age 28, and several other non-commissioned officers charged into the building. Sgt. Harrison Pennue personally disemboweled Tolbert to ensure that he died a slow and torturous death. The government is now run by a so-called "People's Redemption Council" which is made up of seven sergeants, eight corporals and two privates. All are uneducated and Doe, who has promoted himself to General and Commander In Chief of all Military Forces is a high school dropout.

To maintain the loyalty of the 5,000 man army Doe gave every soldier a pay raise from $75 to $250. Doe now enjoys the high life of an African dictator and drives around Monrovia in Tolbert's Mercedes-Benz limousine flanked by motorcycle police with wailing sirens. Doe ordered the execution of 27 leaders of the Tolbert government in public on the beach and imprisoned 700 others. Their bodies were then unceremoniously taken to a swampy common grave plowed up by a bulldozer as residents threw rocks at the bullet-riddled bodies. One man complained, "They buried our president like a dog."

Under Tolbert the average citizen earned $80 per month but the nation is now bankrupt as skilled workers fled and foreign investment stays away.. Last year the Reagan Administration rushed $68 million and 20,000 tons of rice to keep the backward black nation afloat. Doe's non-coms have all been made high ranking officers. If a former government official dares to leave town, his home is seized by a member of the military. The fancy beach front home of the executed former Foreign Minister Charles Dennis was taken over by one soldier who promptly kicked out all the windows. When asked why he did this, the response was, "To let the chickens in, of course." Thus black Africa seems to be able to continue to evade civilization no matter how much money we pump into this eternal "Dark Continent."

Land Misuse Brings Starvation

Starving Sudan woman take leaves and bark off trees to eat.

Man Caused Famine In Africa

The U.N. Agricultural Organization reports that the grim spectre of famine in sub-Sahara Africa has been caused by the natives themselves who do not know how to use the land so that it can reproduce grass, trees, shrubbery, etc. They reported:

"A major reason for the drought is the man's (negroes) neglect of the land. Goats and camels have denuded millions of acres of savanna. In order to feed their animals, the natives cut off the tops of trees, halting their growth. Weather experts believe that this systematic stripping of land has altered the climate and brought about an unmistakable decline in the rainfall. As a result, the Sahara Desert is rapidly spreading south at a rate of more than a half a mile each year."

Haiti is experiencing the same catastrophe. The negroes have cut down almost every tree on the island. It never dawned on them that replanting should take place. This is occurring all over Africa as the land is stripped by the exploding population and nothing is ever put back to fertilize the soil or seed the land!

Witchdoctor Wisdom

Feeds Neighbor To Alligator

"The Star" newspaper in Johannesburg, South Africa reports the conviction of negro Wilson Nkuna for murder. He was sentenceed to seven years in prison. It seems his wife believed she was under the spell of a neighbor named Kaizer Ngobeni. At night she would scream, "Kaizer is eating my soul."

Thus her husband Nkuna sought advice from the local witch doctor. He told him the only way to lift the curse was to feed Kaizer to the crocodiles in the Letaba River. Thus Nkuna tied up his elderly neighbor and tossed him into the river where the man was eaten alive by the alligators. No parts of his body were ever found. The witch doctor was not arrested in the case as it would have caused unrest among the local population who worship him.

Cannibalism Makes Comeback

Cannibal Expert Explains

American Museum of Natural History curator Dr. R. L. Carneiro is considered the world's foremost expert on cannibalism. He reports that cannibalism is practiced for two reasons: they like the taste of human flesh and for religious purposes — that the powers and intelligence of the one devoured becomes part of the cannibal. Dr. Carneiro says that cannibals not only eat tribal enemies they capture, but also will eat their own relatives! Members of one tribe studied ate their deceased family members as part of the funeral rite. This is called "funerary endocannibalism."

Cannibals do not immediately eat their captives according to Dr. Carneiro. They first try to fatten them with starchy food which is sometimes force fed to the victims. The men are often castrated so that their flesh will become softer and more palatable. Favorite parts of the body include the liver, kidney, meaty parts of the arms and legs, the soft base of the thumb. Some tribes favor the eyeballs and all consider the brain very important. Often tribes will cook the corpse in a giant pot but more often he, or she, will be roasted strapped to a rod and slowly turned over a fire. Cannibals refer to this as cooking "long pig."

After the "feast," drinking and celebrating continues long into the night. The next morning the negroes gather up the bones, teeth and other remains and grind them up for "banana drinks." Dr. Carneiro says that cannibalism is still practiced in parts of Africa today. One can find human flesh for sale in village meat markets and this is considered a delicacy. Just 100 years ago it was commonly sold throughout Africa. Today, cannibalism is outlawed by all African governments, but has made a partial comeback with officials turning a blind eye to the practice. The recent deposed Emperor of Central Africa. Bokassa's home was found to have a large freezer with human parts ready for the next banquet.

Cannibalism has never existed among the White Race and is considered evidence of a very primitive and backward people. Liberals, who claim the black Africans are "equal" to White people, are merely deceiving themselves and young people who listen to such nonsense.

News From Darkest Africa

"Myths About Africa"

Believe it or not the above title was chosen by Dapo Odebiyi, formerly with the Nigerian consular's office and now a social worker in the Watts (Calif.) Labor Committee. He is employed there pending his application for U.S. citizenship. Odebiyi states that the Afro-hairstyle, so popular in America, does not exist in Africa. He says most all negro men still shave their heads.

"Swahili" is not an official African language. It is spoken only in Tanzania, Kenya and Uganda and is a corrupt Arabic language. Other Africans speak the tongues of their former European colonial rulers. English and French are the most common. Odebiyi says that most do not know these languages well and speak a pidgin tongue only understandable to those within their own tribe or community.

Odebiyi created a stir addressing a college class. He told them slavery began with African tribal chiefs long before the White man ever reached Africa and long before the arrival of the Arabs. He said it was a common tradition for the winner of any tribal conflict to enslave members of the defeated tribe.

He said even the colorful long "danshiki shirt" came from the Arabs. After the lecture a liberal White professor took him aside and stated, "It's safer to tell Americans what they want to hear and not any embarrassing truths."

The Richest Country in Black Africa

Britain granted Nigeria independence in 1960. The country was oil rich and exported cash crops such as cocoa, rubber, palm oil, cotton and peanuts. Today everything has changed. Nigeria will take in $25 billion from the sale of oil but must now import food to feed her people. Farmers have deserted the land since their White "bosses" left. Most are "subsistence farmers" and grow only enough to feed themselves and to sell at the local market. Most negroes are satisfied if they do just enough work to get by.

The population is skyrocketing with 100 million living in an area the size of California, Arizona and Nevada. If you buy frozen chicken in Lagos it will most likely come from Alabama with American rice to go with it. In 1963 the capital of Lagos had a population of 430,000, but today it has engorged to four million. Severe problems, homeless masses and unplanned shanties lie everywhere. When it rains, pit latrines are flushed onto the streets. Traffic is intolerably congested, there are no social programs for the poor and crime is out of control. No one is safe on the streets after dark. Some 85% of the people believe in witch doctors and thus disease is rampant. The government wants to abandon Lagos and build a new capital in Abuia some 300 miles to the northeast. Construction began on a grand scale but with the world slump in oil trade it has ground to a halt. The average income is only $600 a year and $1 billion in food must be imported because of the breakdown in the farming system.

Corruption is everywhere and over $5 billion has disappeared from the national oil company. An investigation was ordered but they never issued a report. Despite all the oil money, none seems to trickle down to the people! A huge housing program began without enough White engineers to oversee the projects. Several of the small two-story apartment houses have collapsed and 18 recently died when a dormitory building caved in at University Ife. One expert said: "Millions of tons of cement was stretched by corrupt officials. In two or three years we may be seeing buildings collapsing all over Nigeria.!"

Reporters Hate Assignments in Lagos

Bowden Quinn is a reporter with the Overseas Institute of World Affairs and writes of his dreadful visits to Lagos. Mr. Quinn says the problems begin upon arrival at the airport. "Dash," bribes are a way of life. To obtain your passport back from an immigration officer requires at least a $2 "tip." Luggage can disappear and reappear when police are given a "dash" to help them find it. When examining your bags an expensive pen may be taken for "dash."

Even though you may have a confirmed reservation at the hotel, the clerk will not be able to locate your papers until the "dash" is paid. Each time you leave the hotel you have to pay another "dash" to re-enter your room. Still the water in even the best hotels may be cut off without notice and electricity and food service are intermittent at best.

Crime is grisly and rampant. You see snatch-and-run thefts in broad daylight. People are rude, arrogant and greedy. It makes one ask if the Dark Ages are returning to Africa after the flight of the White colonialists.

Slaughter Among Tribes

Nigeria, like the rest of Africa, is plagued with tribalism. In Nigeria there are 250 ethnic tribes. The Ibo tribe sought to succeed and establish the nation of Biafra in the 1960s. That war left over one million dead. Another 1,000 people were killed when local "vigilantes" (which are common in Africa), decided they were out of control. Street executions occur throughout the countryside. The method of death usually is a tire placed around the neck of a bound victim and set afire. Laughing, dancing, drinking celebrants jump for joy as the victim screams in agony and slowly is consumed by the flames. Life is still very cheap in Africa.

Over 1,000 members of the Kano tribe were killed for practicing juju (black magic). Most people believe in witch doctors and voodoo. The Kano tribe believes the eyes of children can be used as charms to make a thief invincible. Alhaji Marwa, their chief, told them the eyes made them invincible — that their bows and arrows could defeat the Nigerian army's mortars, machine guns and bazookas. Needless to say they were wiped out. Still, superstition runs deep in negroes and tribes are always ready to kill one another.

Pres. Shehu Shagari said the greatest danger in Africa "is the sergeant taking over here — the major there — that puts ideas into others, even some of our own military here. The threat of a new coup always haunts us."

Georgia Leaders Fought Martin Luther King's Communist Movement

Georgia Gov. Marvin Griffin linked forces with the state Agriculture Commissioner Tom Linder in 1954 to fight communist subversion. At that time these two patriots turned the "Georgia Commission on Education" into an effective information service to awaken Americans to the grave threat posed by the communist infiltration and takeover of the Civil Rights movement. Tom Linder was also editor of the powerful "Farmers' Market Bulletin" which carried many of his hard hitting editorials exposing communism.

Gov. Griffin and Tom Linder authorized the publication of a broadside sheet outlining M. L. King's communist connections. Later aided by Gov. Ernest Vandiver, the Georgia Commission on Education published thousands of copies of a report given before the anti-communist Florida Legislative Investigation Committee of Feb. 10, 1958. The important parts of the testimony given by Dr. J. B. Matthews on King and the communists are published on this page.

Dr. J. B. Matthews was a minister who traveled world wide. In the early 1920s he thought communism would establish a "workers' paradise." Thus he helped leaders of the communist party form front organizations. In fact, Dr. Matthews became Secretary of one of the largest Red fronts, "The American League Against War and Fascism." Later he broke with the communists and wrote an article for the American Mercury magazine exposing ministers who he personally knew were communist fronters. From there Matthews would be hired as Chief Investigator for the House Committee on UnAmerican Activities. Dr. J. B. Matthews did more research into the communist underground network in America than any other Patriot of his time. Even in the early 1960s he was still exposing communists and his documentation was so thorough that it was never contradicted. The following is part of his evidence on Martin Luther King whom many Washington politicians now wish to make a national hero.

Georgia Rep. Wyche Fowler called King a "patriot" in the House, supporting the bill to make his birthday a national holiday on an equal plane with that of George Washington — the founder of the Republic! King was a member of 62 communist fronts. Time is still left for us to write our U. S. Senators who will not vote on the King bill until after Labor Day. Tell them that you will vote against any U. S. Senator who should thusly disgrace our nation. The very idea of future public school history textbooks hailing King as some sort of great hero is disgusting and sickening to every red blooded American. Write your Senators today where you stand on this issue. We want the King holiday bill defeated!!.

Dr. J. B. Matthews, Chief Investigator for the House Committee on Un-American Activities, documents King's communist record.

Communists, Negroes, and Integration

In the pages which follow, certain propositions will emerge from the evidence submitted. For the most part, original Communist sources have been cited in order to let the Communists speak for themselves. It should be clear that—

1) The Communists are at work, with their customary fanatical dedication, in stirring up trouble in the field of public school integration in the South;

2) The Communists have been at work for some thirty years in the field of agitation among Negroes;

3) The Communists have organized and promoted a succession of united fronts and fronts designed especially for winning Negroes to Communism;

4) The tactics of Communist agitation among Negroes are greatly altered from time to time, but the basic objective of violent revolution remains unchanged;

5) Whatever the line of the Communist Party on the Negro question may be at a given moment, it is based upon the so-called Marxist-Leninist analysis and is dictated by Moscow in the special interests of the Soviet Union;

6) There is a vast Communist literature on the subject of Communism and the American Negro;

7) One of the announced goals of the Communist program is the confiscation without compensation of the property of the white capitalists and landowners in the South;

Com dent Myle

8) The Communists favor racial amalgamation and assert that a Communist revolution would speed up the process;

9) The Communists have established friendly contacts with the Negro leaders of most of the recent integration incidents in the South;

10) The Communists rely chiefly upon the support which they are able to command from misguided Southern liberals;

11) This is an era in Communist strategy when the Party has reverted to the united front policy which prevailed immediately prior to and during World War II;

12) Communist leaders have asserted that "Negro liberation" is their Number One issue on the domestic front.

Confiscation

The program of the Communist Party calls for the confiscation of the property of the white people in the so-called Black Belt. According to William Z. Foster, writing in his book entitled Toward Soviet America:

> In a Soviet system, the Negro will have the most complete equality—economically, politically, socially . . . He will have ample land, confiscated from the great white landlords . . . Socialism will mean the first real freedom for the Negro. He is beginning to realize this, hence his mass turning to the Communist party for leadership, and the consequent deep alarm of the capitalists and big landowners at this growing unity of white and black toilers. (p 303)

Communist Aim: Racial Amalgamation

In their franker moments, Communist leaders in the United States have stated bluntly that one of their aims is to bring about racial amalgamation. Thus, William Z. Foster, present head of the Communist Party in America, declared in his book entitled Toward Soviet America:

> The American Soviet will, of course, abolish all restrictions upon racial intermarriage . . . The revolution will only hasten this process of integration, already proceeding throughout the world with increasing tempo. (p. 305-306) organizations," some statistical data with respect to this question are enlightening.

The Communist Party has been strikingly successful in its efforts at infiltrating the Federal and the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. during the past 20-odd years.

In view of the fact that the philosophical bases of Communism and Christianity are as antithetical as two philosophies could possibly be, the success of the Communists in penetrating the ranks of the Protestant clergy is hard for some to understand. Nevertheless, the cold statistical facts are a matter of public record. It is not necessary to rely upon anybody's opinions.

The National Council of Churches was officially constituted on November 29, 1950, in Cleveland, Ohio. It was, in fact, nothing more than a reorganization of the Federal Council of Churches.

There were 358 clergymen who were voting delegates to the constituting convention of the National Council of Churches in Cleveland. Of these clergymen, 123 (or 34 percent) have had affiliations with Communist projects and enterprises.

The aim of the Communist penetration of non-Communist organizations is not necessarily to recruit members of the Party, but rather to create a favorable climate of opinion for certain limited objectives of the Communist program. In this way, the stain of Communism is removed from these objectives, and thus they appear to be the objectives of men of goodwill.

Highlander Folk School Seminar

Over the Labor Day weekend (August 30-September 2, 1957), Highlander Folk School, at Monteagle, Tennessee, staged its 25th anniversary seminar on "the human aspects of the integration struggle." Notorious Communists, veteran Communist fellow travelers, and Negro leaders in all the recent major incidents attending integration were present at the seminar (The incident of Little Rock had not yet occurred.)

Before taking up the records of the prominent integrationists who were present, it is necessary to take a look at the Highlander Folk School and its ideological orientation.

The Highlander Folk School at Monteagle, Tennessee, was organized around 1932 by Myles Horton and Don West. (See testimony of Paul Crouch, May 6, 1949, Subcommittee of the Committee on Un-American Activities, page 193.) In his testimony, Mr. Crouch said: "I would like to mention in this connection that the Highlander Folk School at Monteagle, Tennessee, was a school organized by Myles Horton and Don West, and which Mr. (James) Dombrowski shortly thereafter joined."

Paul Crouch, who gave the foregoing testimony concerning the Highlander Folk School, was the top Communist Party functionary in the South. His Communist record given to a Senate committee by Crouch himself attests his importance:

> The major positions I held in the Communist Party were the head of the Communist Party's department for infiltration of the Armed Forces of the United States, a representative of the Communist Party of the United States to the executive committee of the Communist International in Moscow, a member of a commission in Moscow to draft plans to infiltrate and subvert all the armed forces of the world, and operate as honorary regimental commander of the Red Army, a special student at the Frunze Military Academy in Moscow; I was a member of the editorial staff of the Daily Worker, official organ of the Communist Party, a member of the various commissions of the central and national committee of the party, State or district organizer for Florida, for Utah, for North and South Carolina, and Tennessee, editor of the Communist magazine, The New South, the official organ for the Southern States, member of the district bureau of the Communist Party for Alabama, Mississippi, and Georgia, and chairman of the control commission of the Communist Party for that area, a member of the district bureau of the Communist Party for California, for Nevada, and Hawaii, national secretary of the Anti Imperialist League, and many other minor positions.

Speaking of James Dombrowski, Mr. Crouch testified as follows: "I have met officially with him on a number of occasions as head of the Communist District Bureau of Tennessee . . . at this conference Mr. Dombrowski gave me the impression of being completely pro-Communist and anxious to collaborate with the Communist Party and follow its leadership, without taking the risk of actual Party membership."

In March 1954, the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security held hearings in New Orleans on the subject of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc., of which James Dombrowski was and is the executive director. Among the witnesses who testified before the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security in New Orleans was one John Butler who had formerly been a functionary of the Communist Party in Alabama.

In the course of his testimony, Mr. Butler stated that he attended a meeting of Communist Party leaders in July of 1942, in the Thomas Jefferson Hotel in Birmingham, Alabama. Mr. Butler stated that Alton Lawrence introduced James Dombrowski to him on that occasion as a Communist Party member. (See Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security Hearings, March 18, 1954, page 45.) According to Mr. Butler, this meeting of Communist Party leaders was held in Dombrowski's own hotel room. In November, 1956, Alton Lawrence was indicted on a charge of conspiring to file a false non-Communist affidavit with the National Labor Relations Board, which non-Communist affidavit is required of trade union officials by the Taft-Hartley Act. (See New York Times, November 17, 1956.) Alton Lawrence is currently an official of the Communist-controlled International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers.

In the early period of the Highlander Folk School, Alton Lawrence was a member of its faculty. On August 13, 1938, Mr. John P. Frey, president of the Metal Trades Department of the AFL, testified before the Dies Committee on Un-American Activities, and named Elizabeth Hawes, Alton Lawrence, and Myles Horton as persons who "attended a secret convention in North Carolina, at which time plans were made for spreading the revolutionary theories throughout the South."

Don West, who has already been mentioned as connected with the Highlander Folk School, was district director of the Communist Party of North Carolina. (See House Committee Hearings, May 6, 1949, page 191.)

At the New Orleans hearings of the Senate Committee, on March 20, 1954, Myles Horton was ejected by the United States Marshal from the witness stand and the hearing room, for disorderly conduct.

James Dombrowski's record of pro-Communist activities and connections will be discussed under the section on the Southern Conference Educational Fund, an organization which is playing a key role in the drive for integration in the South.

Abner W. Berry — King's Communist Contact

The presence of a prominent Communist Party Negro leader at the Highlander Folk School seminar is of major significance. Through Abner W. Berry, the Communist Party established personal contacts with the Southern leaders of the fight for integration. The Party, in its present-day strategy, sets the highest value on such personal contacts. It is the current strategy of penetration.

Abner W. Berry is a veteran Communist Party leader. More than 25 years ago, he was a member of the national council of the League of Struggle for Negro Rights, a Communist sputnik which will be discussed later. For 20 years, Berry has been a member of the national committee of the Communist Party. He has also been a member of the smaller central committee of the Party (Daily Worker, May 23, 1938, p. 5).. In 1946, he was educational director of the Communist Party of Michigan (Daily Worker, Jan. 21, 1946, p. 5). He was an instructor at the Communist Party's Jefferson School of Social Science for several years before the school closed in December, 1956.

Abner W. Berry is, and has been for years, a feature writer for the Daily Worker. In this newspaper of the Communist Party, Berry made a lengthy report on his visit to the Highlander Folk School. In his report, Berry said:

> Here for four days Negro and white leaders of the South representing millions of southerners, had the precious communications established with each other that had been disconnected during the past few years. (Daily Worker, Sept. 10, 1957, p. 5)

Berry has been a writer for other Communist publications: Masses & Mainstream, Michigan Herald, New Masses, People's Daily World, and Political Affairs. He served for a number of years on the editorial board of Political Affairs, the theoretical organ of the Communist Party.

It is apparent that Abner W. Berry is a high ranking leader of the Communist Party. It goes without saying that the Party sent him to the Highlander Folk School seminar. Such leaders receive their assignments from the highest command of the Communist Party; they do not go anywhere on their own. The cordial reception which Berry was accorded at the Highlander Folk School is convincing evidence of the school's ideological orientation.

Berry states that "two southern NAACP branch presidents" attended the Highlander Folk School seminar on integration."

Aubrey Williams — Trained King How To Incite Street Riots

Aubrey Williams and the Rev. Martin Luther King were the two featured speakers at the closing session of the Highlander Folk School seminar.

As president of the highly influential Southern Conference Educational Fund, Aubrey Williams ranks among top leaders of all-out integration.

Williams was director of the National Youth Administration under President Roosevelt. He also held other high positions in the New Deal. In 1945, however, the U. S. Senate rejected his appointment as administrator of the Rural Electrification Administration, after his affiliations with the Communist apparatus had been placed in the record. He is at present editor and publisher of the Southern Farm and Home, Montgomery, Alabama, which has a circulation of 800,000.

On March 19, 1954, Williams was subpoenaed to testify before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee. In the course of his examination by committee counsel Richard Arens, Williams testified that the following passage was a part of a speech which he had delivered in Madison Square Garden, New York City, on September 11, 1947, under the auspices of the Communist-controlled Progressive Citizens of America:

> What they demand is that any man who admits to being a member of the Communist Party be fired immediately on the grounds that no man can be loyal to the United States and be a Communist: It is my belief that it is precisely at this point that we take our stand and defend the right of any Communist to maintain his position as an employee of the Government of the United States. To take any less position than this is to throw overboard such primary rights as the freedom to think and to hold whatever beliefs one chooses. (Hearings, p. 107; emphasis added)

Anyone holding Aubrey Williams' views on the employment of admitted Communist Party members in the U. S. Government could be expected to welcome the aid of Communist Party members in the drive for integration.

According to Abner W. Berry's account of the Highlander Folk School seminar in the Daily Worker (Sept. 10, 1957, p. 5) Aubrey Williams spoke "prophetically" when he declared that the present situation in the South "is only a short step to general violence" and that the "stuff out of which rebellions are made is definitely being planted."

In the later years of its existence, Aubrey Williams was president of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare.

The name of Aubrey Williams was attached to a brief amici curiae on behalf of the Communist Party, at the October 1955 Term of the U. S. Supreme Court. Other red-hot integrationists whose names appear on this defense of the Communist Party include the following: John M. Coe, James A. Dombrowski, W. E. B. DuBois, James W. Ford, W. A. Hunton, and William L. Patterson.

Aubrey Williams is, and has been for many years, a member of the executive committee of the Highlander Folk School.

It would be superfluous to add further details of the many Communist affiliations of Aubrey Williams.

Martin Luther King

The Rev. Martin Luther King, president of the Montgomery (Ala.) Improvement Association and pastor of the Dexter Avenue Baptist Church, delivered the closing address at the Highlander Folk School seminar.

King is the nationally acclaimed Negro leader of the integration forces in the South. He is scheduled as one of the featured speakers at the forthcoming assembly of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U. S. A., in December.

It is of great significance that King is in close touch with such Communists and pro-Communists as were assembled at the Highlander Folk School seminar.

Leading Communists have been writing enthusiastically about King's movement. In the April, 1957, issue of Political Affairs, Benjamin J. Davis writes of "the national upsurge of the Negroes in the South, spearheaded by the non-violent integration movement." (p. 13) In his new book entitled Toward Negro Freedom, the editor of Political Affairs, Herbert Aptheker, writes of King's bus boycott in Montgomery, Alabama, as follows:

> And in Montgomery, Alabama, there is the epic struggle of the entire 50,000 members of its Negro community . . . Here, with women in the lead, is the unparalleled and unbreakable splendor of an entire people speaking out to the world in tones of purity and self-sacrifice and saying: "We will live in freedom, in our own day and here in our own city." (p. 180)

Such rhetoric is calculated to ingratiate the Communists with the Rev. Martin Luther King and his large following. The art of flattery is the current tactic of Communist penetration. The tactical crudities of the Party's early years have given way to subtle refinements in penetrating Negro organizations and movements. The Communist Party, however, does not repudiate its former methods which breathed revolutionary fire and brimstone. Writing in Political Affairs, James E. Jackson (one of the top Negro leaders of the Communist Party) says:

> It has for three decades been the honorable (sic) task of Communists to set a high standard of devotion to and energetic leadership in the fight for Negro rights. Recognizing the special national character of this question, we have raised our voices among the workers when others stood mute. (Resolution presented to the 16th National Convention of the CPUSA by James E. Jackson, chairman of the Subcommittee on Negro Rights; Political Affairs, March, 1957, p. 34)

Jackson thus fondly embraces the Communist Party's record in the African Blood Brotherhood, the American Negro Labor Congress, the League of Struggle for Negro Rights, the National Negro Congress, and other misadventures in its efforts to kindle revolutionary ardor among American Negroes.

Now, the Party looks upon Martin Luther King's work and movement as a new opportunity to incite racial animosity, and upon King's attendance at the Highlander Folk School seminar as a most desirable contact.

In its present adulation of Martin Luther King and his kind of "liberation" movement, the Communist Party still bows reverently at the altar of Marxist-Leninist Theory. James E. Jackson, quoted above on the subject of the Party's past, turns to the Communist Party's present and writes:

> As the advance guard of the American working class, the Communist Party must continue to make its contributions to the fight for Negro rights, under the changed conditions of today, as effectively, as honorably, as it did in previous periods of struggle. The fight for Negro rights needs the contribution which Communists, guided by Marxist-Leninist theory, are in a position to make. (p. 34)

On February 21, 1956, after the bus boycott in Montgomery had run for 11 weeks, the Negro leaders of the boycott were arrested and charged with violation of Alabama's anti-boycott statute. The Rev. Martin Luther King was among those arrested. On March 22, he was found guilty and fined $500. The case is on appeal.

It is interesting to note that the proponents of public school integration in the South make a great to-do about the U. S. Supreme Court's decision of May 17, 1954, by claiming with unparalleled vehemence that the decision is "the law of the land." On the other hand, they ignore with complete unanimity the U. S. Supreme Court's decision of 1908 declaring the organized boycott of the Danbury Hatters to be in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act, the principle of which decision is reflected in Alabama's anti-boycott statute.

Mrs. Rosa Parks

It goes almost without saying that Mrs. Rosa Parks was in attendance at the Highlander Folk School seminar.

It was Mrs. Parks who started the Montgomery bus boycott. On December 1, 1955, when she refused to sit in a seat in the rear of a bus, she was arrested and fined $14. Shortly prior to her dramatic defiance of the segregation ordinance, Mrs. Parks had taken a course at Highlander Folk School.

Mrs. Parks promptly became a heroine to the Communists. The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, a Communist front, arranged meetings for her in New York City, including one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Corliss Lamont.

The Worker, Communist Party Sunday newspaper, of August 29, 1948, carried a full-page advertisement of an enterprise called The First Line of Defense. It was another manifesto in defense of the Communist Party, opening with the following words addressed to the President and the Attorney General: "We, the undersigned Negro Americans, strongly condemn your hysteria-breeding arrests of the Negro leaders of the Communist Party, and call upon you to take positive action to protect civil rights instead of persecuting political minorities." This manifesto, too, was signed by Charles G. Gomillion. Co-signers included the following notorious Communist Party leaders of the Negro race: Louis E. Burnham, Ernest Thompson, Abner W. Berry (one of the participants in the Highlander Folk School conference), James W. Ford, Harry Haywood, W. A. Hunton, Richard B. Moore, S. C. Patterson, and Doxey Wilkerson.

Gomillion sponsored a testimonial dinner for W. E. B. DuBois whose services to the Communist cause have been enormous. The dinner was given at Essex House, New York City, on February 23, 1951. Prominent Communists who co-sponsored this DuBois testimonial dinner included the following: Herbert Aptheker, Mrs. Louise Berman, Howard Fast, Frederick V. Field, Ben Gold, W. A. Hunton, Albert E. Kahn, William L. Patterson, Melba Phillips, Joseph Selly, Howard Selsam, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred K. Stern (who recently fled behind the Iron Curtain to escape indictments for espionage), and Gene Weltfish.

Charles G. Gomillion is a member of the board of directors of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, an organization whose ideological orientation toward Communism will be discussed later.

Prussian Statement Below

NON-VIOLENCE BEGETS VIOLENCE

It has become increasingly more established that the so called "non-violence" approach of Martin Luther King in the "civil rights" movement begets violence. The demonstrative "non-violent" activities are the spawning media for violence; one supplements the other. The recent demonstration and violence that followed in Chicago, Illinois is a classic portrayal of this truth and there should be no doubt about my contention that King is a knowledgeable revolutionary, who not only knows this truth, but expects and prepares for the violence that always follows "peaceful" demonstrative forays led by him.

"WHEREVER HE GOES VIOLENCE ERUPTS"

Joseph Le Fevour, president of the Chicago Lodge of the Fraternal Order of Police hit the nail on the head when he said at the time of this latest riot, "He (King) preaches non-violence, yet wherever he goes violence erupts." (Chicago American, July 15, 1966).

IS KING A COMMUNIST?

The question one logically asks at this point is, "Since King appears to be skillfully carrying out this communist directive, is he a member of the Communist Party?"

The only people I have ever named as communists are those who have attended cell meetings with me. I have never attended such a meeting with King and, therefore, cannot identify him. I have however signed an affidavit under oath that "Martin Luther King has either been a member of, or wittingly has accepted support from communist fronts, individuals, and/or organizations which give aid to or espouse communist causes, numbering over sixty."

KING IN VIOLATION

It matters not whether he is a member of the communist party or not. America must be concerned with what and how he does things. It is not necessary to prove a person to be a member of the communist party to prosecute under the Smith Act. Aiding and abetting the continuous criminal conspiracy is in violation and I contend that he is so doing! There is voluminous evidence that King is conspiring. For example, Mayor Daley, after order had been restored, said that "he has documented evidence that members of the staff of the Southern Christian Leadership Council, headed by the Rev. Martin Luther King, inspired and instructed people in conducting racial violence. . .

Thunderbolt Street Distribution Easy - Fun!

Remembering Sen. Theodore Bilbo

Famous Statement Of The Late Sen. Bilbo of Miss.

The following statement of Sen. Theodore G. Bilbo of Mississippi appears in his book, "Take Your Choice — Segregation or Mongrelization" (Available from The Thunderbolt, $5 per copy.) His most frequently quoted statement from this book is:

"If our buildings, our highways, our railroads should be wrecked, we could rebuild them. If our cities should be destroyed, out of the very ruins we could erect newer and greater ones. Even if our armed might should be crushed, we could rear sons who would redeem our power. But if the blood of our White race should become corrupted and mingled with the blood of Africa, then the present greatness of the United States of America would be destroyed and all hope for the future would be forever gone. The maintenance of American civilization would be as impossible for a negroid America as would be redemption and restoration of the White man's blood which had been mixed with that of the negro."

Ideas That Work To Build Thunderbolt Circulation: Fund Raising And Thunderbolt Distribution

On the back page of every issue of The Thunderbolt is a list of the current and back issues available for local distribution to active supporters. Many people take advantage of these forms and some months orders for extra copies require press reruns and have at times surpassed even paid mail circulation.

Frank Johnson is a member who has participated in more street distribution campaigns than any other member. He and several others will stand on a busy street corner where there is a stop light. They will hold the papers in one hand and a small bucket in the other. People walking by and those stopping in cars must know what the paper is about. Tell them: "Read The Thunderbolt — The Paper Which Stands Up For The Rights of White People." In working class areas you will find that the vast majority of White working people, especially the young and the old, will stop and take a paper.

By holding a bucket with a few dollars inside to start with, most people will give a donation. People will give anything from a dime to a quarter, or a dollar and sometimes $5 or $10 and a few have given $20. The main point is to be neatly dressed, always smiling, not pushy, and move from car to car while they are stopped. Frank Johnson and his team have often averaged as much as $100 an hour during weekend distribution efforts. Some of the money pays for more newspapers, some is donated to The Thunderbolt and other times it will go as a donation to a member or supporter of the local Chapter who is in need.

Door To Door Distribution

In some high crime rate areas of America, frightened people will not come to the door when a stranger knocks. In other cities (like Atlanta) they will answer the door during the daytime but not at night. They will more often open the door if you have a woman with you who answers their question.

Order from 10 to 50 extra copies of The Thunderbolt. Pick out a "route area" and deliver your papers free, placing them inside the screen door or under the floor mat. It's easier still to roll the paper up and place a small rubber band around it and toss it on the porch.

A week later have a different issue on hand (a back issue is O.K.) and knock on the door. When they ask, "Who's there?" — reply "I am The Thunderbolt distributor in the neighborhood and I have another newspaper for you." If they liked the first issue, they will open the door and accept the paper. Have a small bucket in the other hand and ask if they would like to make a small donation toward the cost of the paper. If they agree, then place them on your list for regular distribution. If they say "No," just say, "I hope you like the paper," but cross them off your distribution list. You will be surprised how the "route" will build up and people who like the paper will be more generous as time goes by. This way you meet new people who are sympathetic to our cause. Urge them to subscribe or join the NSRP and invite them to attend a meeting.

(Note: Nover waste time with anyone who is unsympathetic and wants to take up a lot of your time talking and defending the other side. Simply tell them to write or phone the paper and we will answer any question they may have and then move on to the next house. The idea is to cover the 10 to 50 homes in your neighborhood wihtout any undue waste of time.)

M. L. King & Communist Party

Conrad Browne (white) came to the seminar from Koinonia Farm, an interracial colony near Americus, Georgia. This interracial community has been an incitement to prolonged violence.

Ralph Helstein, president of the United Packing House Workers of America, AFL-CIO, was also a speaker. This union has been heavily infiltrated by known Communists.

A Succession of Sputniks for Negroes

One of the top leaders of the Communist International, Otto Kuusinen, said in a speech before the executive committee of the C.I. that it was the first business of the Communists to launch satellite organizations and committees. In The Communist of May, 1931, Kuusinen was quoted on these satellites of the Communist Party, as follows:

> The first part of our task is to build up, not only Communist organizations, but other organizations as well, above all mass organizations sympathizing with our aims and able to aid us for special purposes . . . We must create a whole solar system of organizations and smaller committees around the Communist Party, so to speak, smaller organizations working actually under the influence of our Party (not under mechanical leadership). (p. 409-423; emphasis in original)

The satellite or sputnik organizations which the Communist Party in the United States has launched especially for Negroes are far too numerous to name all of them. Brief sketches of the principal sputniks in this category will, however, serve to illuminate the aims and tactics of the American Communist Party with respect to the Negroes of the United States.

A partial list of the Communist sputniks for Negroes follows:

African Blood Brotherhood
Alabama Peoples Educational Association
Citizens Emergency Conference for Interracial Unity
Committee for Equal Justice for Mrs. Recy Taylor
League of Struggle for Negro Rights
Negro Labor Victory Committee
Southern Negro Youth Congress
United Negro and Allied Veterans of America
Abolish Peonage Committee
American Negro Labor Congress
American Negro Labor Council
Committee to Defend Angelo Herndon
Committee for the Negro in the Arts
Committee to Aid the Fighting South
Frederick Douglass Educational Center
Martinsville Seven Committee
National Negro Congress
Negro People's Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy
Southern Conference for Human Welfare
Southern Conference Educational Fund

Of these, only the Southern Conference Educational Fund is still in existence.

African Blood Brotherhood

The African Blood Brotherhood was the first sputnik in the Communist Party's system of satellites. It was penetrated and captured, not originally launched, by the Communists.

Joseph Zack Kornfeder, then a leading member of the Communist Party, has told the following story of the penetration and capture of the African Blood Brotherhood:

> . . . the Communist Party activities amongst the Negroes here in the United States started about 1921, and were prompted by a letter sent to the American Party by Nikolai Lenin . . . Well, so, of course, the party couldn't ignore a letter from Nikolai Lenin . . . I was then the junior member of the Central Committee . . . Well, when I looked around I found that there was simply no Negro membership in the Communist Party . . . I knew from the Socialist Party that there were some Negroes in Harlem in a branch of the Socialist Party which was mostly Negroes, although there were also whites in the same branch, and I looked up one of them and he advised me to see an individual by the name of Cyril Briggs. Well, I looked up this individual, and he was the editor of a paper called The Crusader, which was the official organ of a Negro organization called the African Blood Brotherhood. Well, I put in quite an effort on this fellow Briggs, to see whether I could work him over ideologically, and as I got acquainted with him, I noticed that he was having his financial troubles publishing the paper. I didn't tell him that I represented the Communist Party, of course. I just posed as a liberal uncle, who had his sympathies on the Negro side, and was willing to help him. Whenever he ran into some trouble about paying the printer, well, I always obliged with a few hundred dollars. This way I became friends with this Briggs and I worked him over ideologically, and the cant of the journal changed. And, of course, in due time I got at some of his friends who were on the Board of Directors, and, well, it took only about a year before the controlling influence in that organization upon top was exerted through me, and they pretty nearly would do, although they weren't yet in the party, what I wanted them to do. Well, and later on I signed him up into the Communist Party as a member. So that was the first Negro organization that the party got hold of ideologically, at least—later on organizationally. That's how the thing started. (Subversion in Racial Unrest, Baton Rouge, La., March 6-9, 1957, p. 37)

Cyril Briggs went on to become one of the most prominent Negro leaders in the history of the Communist Party in the United States.

Thousands Lose Jobs as Big Business Moves Plants

U. S. Job Flight To the Orient

The big computer corporations may have their executive headquarters in America but only two still manufacture their home computers and video games here. All the others have moved their plants to Taiwan, Malaysia, Hong Kong, Philippines and Mexico. The only two firms left which operate plants producing their products in the U.S.A. are Texas Instruments and Commodore.

Atari, Inc. just closed its Sunnyvale, Calif. plant and laid off 1,700 Americans. All equipment, lock, stock and barrel was moved to Hong Kong where they only pay workers 50¢ an hour. I.B.M., Wang, Vector and all the others moved their factories to the Orient long ago and they admit only one reason for the move — CHEAP LABOR!

Recently a so-called employment expert appeared on every TV interview show in the country. He told people that America no longer needed heavy industry. He said that factories building automobiles, ships, steel, were all things of the past. The smiling "expert" reassured the viewers that everyone would soon be retrained to sit in easy chairs behind desks turning out computers and other high-tech equipment. THIS IS A TOTAL LIE BECAUSE ALL THIS "HIGH TECH" MANUFACTURING IS DONE MUCH CHEAPER IN ASIA!

American jobs must be protected! WE owe it to our children and those yet to be born that they will have a place to earn a living and support a family. This is all part of the American birthright. Time and jobs are running out. Only trade barriers against the importation of any product which displaces American workers can prevent massive permanent unemployment right here in America. Your future is at stake. Cowardly officials in Washington look the other way as industry folds and sneaks away in the middle of the night to coolie-wage Third World slave states. We oppose this corporate betrayal of the American worker. Will you join with us in spreading the truth now before it is too late? ? ?

Urgent — Write Your Two Senators To Vote Against the King Holiday Bill

We were astounded when the House of Representatives voted on Aug. 2 by 338 to 90 vote to make the pro-Communist Martin Luther King's birthday a national holiday! This is almost unbelievable! Turncoat Sen. Howard Baker has moved to place the King bill on the Senate calendar for a vote in September. Baker bypassed all committees to speed-up action on the bill!

WRITE YOUR TWO SENATORS IMMEDIATELY TO VOTE AGAINST THE KING HOLIDAY BILL! Save the list of Congressmen below and vote against every single one of them who voted for the King bill. Please support in every possible way the courageous 90 who had the guts to vote against it. Remember then that all civil rights and Jewish groups will be gunning to defeat these 90 Representatives next year.

You may wish to take out the pages from this issue of The Thunderbolt documenting King's communist record and send them along with your letter to your Senators. Please order extra copies for distribution.

Release The Secret King Tapes

The tapes made by Nixon, Roosevelt and a few by Kennedy have been released. Why is it that a court order was obtained by the King family in 1977 (with the aid of ex-Sen. Frank Church) to seal the FBI wire tapes of King's phone conversations and wild motel room sex parties?

Rep. Larry McDonald said the public should not have to wait until the year 2027 before we know the full truth about King when this momentous decision is about to be made to place King on an equal level with George Washington, the father of this nation, as the only other person similarly honored. The tapes are said to include conversations between King and his contact within the Communist Party, Stanley D. Levison, who was also once vice-president of the American Jewish Congress. The tapes reveal that King has an appetite for the sexually bizarre, which included interracial sex, group sex and acts of sexual perversion! IS THIS THE TYPE OF MAN OUR HISTORY BOOKS OF THE FUTURE WILL UPHOLD AS A NATIONAL HERO EQUAL TO GEORGE WASHINGTON?

Write your Senators today that should they vote for Martin Luther King — an open communist fronter — then you and your friends will never — ever — vote for them again! This also applied to the 338 Congressmen who sold us down the river for a handful of black votes.

These Women are part of Atari's 1,700 permanently laid off workers.

Teacher Layoffs Hit Whites Not Blacks

Because of the rapid decline in the White birthrate the nation now has too many school teachers. Boston Federal Judge W. Arthur Garrity had ordered that negroes make up 20% of the school system's teachers. Recently 550 White teachers were laid off by the school board through agreement with Judge Garrity. No black teachers were laid off despite the fact that some even had 18 years seniority.

Seniority is now secondary to racial quota hiring. Boston still had not met its goal of 20% black teachers. Thus the school board announced a job recruitment drive for new negro teachers on the very day more White teachers were given their pink layoff slips. White teachers are being hit with the same job discriminatory layoffs in Springfield, Ill., Buffalo, N.Y., Kalamazoo, Mo., and other cities. These outrages will continue until White people wake up and unite in defense of their own rights!

King Birthday Commemoration

On Aug. 2, 1983, Congress approved a measure designating Martin Luther King's birthday as a national holiday. Opponents like Representatives William Dannemeyer (R.-Calif.) and Jack Fields (R.-Tex.) cited studies which said that a new federal holiday could cost U.S. taxpayers hundreds of millions of dollars in lost productivity. While most supporters urged approval of the holiday to commemorate King's efforts in achieving equality for blacks, radical Rep. Ron Dellums (D.-Calif.) urged passage of the bill to honor King's bitter, vitriolic attacks on the U.S. war effort in Vietnam. A "yes" vote is a vote for the King holiday, which also received the backing of many conservatives:

NSRP Message Reaching New People

NSRP Conference Report

The National Executive Committee of the National States Rights Party met in Atlanta last month. Officers attending include Gene Wilson, Jerry Pope, Dallas Hale, Dr. E. R. Fields and Ray Stevens. Many subjects were discussed including the upcoming Presidential election of 1984. The Committee set this year's National Convention for the Thanksgiving Holiday weekend. Full details will be issued at a later date but this is an extremely important meeting. Leaders of all over sincere White Patriotic groups will be invited to attend. There will also be the selection of permanent officers to guide the NSRP over the next four years.

After the committee conference, a meeting was held at an Atlanta motel ballroom for all area supporters. Gene Wilson gave an inspiring speech covering the many years he has been an active member of the Party from its growth in infancy to the nationwide organization which it is today. Jerry Pope spoke about the organizational activity he is promoting in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky. His next meeting is set for the area around Brilliant, Ohio which is on the W. Va. border where the public will be invited to attend. Dr. Fields stressed the need for continuing to build Thunderbolt circulation by giving the paper to friends, neighbors and coworkers and urging them to subscribe.

Metro-Atlanta has numerous neighbor and community newspapers which are not as pro-communist as the Constitution / Journal. On this page we reproduce an excellent letter by member Floyd Martin. This is another well written letter to the editor and was promptly printed by the Douglas County Sentinel on Aug. 2. Again our full address was given! Why not write your own letter using a combination of ideas set out in these two letters?

Remember that this is FREE advertising for our cause and does not cost us one cent. To pay for such letters as ads in many newspapers would cost thousands of dollars. You can do your part by sitting down and writing a similar letter today. Keep it short and to the point, then it will most likely be published.

Letters On Specific Subjects Published

Washington State is liberal but even their small community newspapers will publish your letters. The Daily News Journal in Kent, Wash., published a real eye-opener from Don Paulson of Auburn, Wash. He lists every Soviet head of the Red secret police and brought out the fact that every single one of them was a Jew. They did not carry Mr. Paulson's first letter and he demanded an explanation. They promised to run his second letter and this is the result. It has never dawned on many people how easy it is to get our message across by mailing in a "Letter to the Editor" to your local newspaper.

The Federal Reserve Bank was fully exposed in "The Daily Progress" of July 18 in a very long letter by Irene Ward Norsen of Charlottesville, Va. In the letter she urged readers to order Eustace Mullins' book, "The Federal Reserve Conspiracy."

Set Up Right-Wing Booths at County Fairs and Gun Shows

"The Clarion-Ledger" of Jackson, Miss., published an article about the big gun show held at the State Coliseum. It reported a group of young men rented a booth displaying books and copies of The Thunderbolt. Sales were brisk. Most local county fairs and gun shows will rent you a table or booth at a reasonable fee. Display a sign and The Thunderbolt newspapers. Take up subscriptions and sell newspapers. You will earn a profit every time and often make new friends from people who are interested in joining the NRSP.

Jackson activist Wendell Gardner bought tickets for his friends to hear Pres. Reagan speak in Jackson, Miss. They walked down the sidewalk to the meeting carrying large signs reading, "Segregation Forever," "Civil Rights Act Unconstitutional," and "Ban Busing." The police didn't allow Mr. Gardner and his friends into the hall to hear Reagan with their signs. Thus they were content standing on the corner across the street from the hall, when the President drove by hoping he would read their protest signs. Regardless, a story appeared in the newspaper quoting their signs. Also hundreds of our fellow kinsmen standing along the street saw with their own eyes that young people are still publicly demanding RIGHTS FOR WHITE PEOPLE!!

Free Thunderbolt Ads In Your Local Newspaper

We recently issued a call for Thunderbolt subscribers to write letters to the editor of their local community newspapers explaining why America needs a strong Third Party — The National States Rights Party! Then give our full address. You would be surprised how many people have written us for free literature as a result of such letters. While it is more difficult to get a letter into large dailies such as the Atlanta Newspapers, New York Times, Washington Post, etc., it is very easy to have your letter printed by a small town or county community weekly.

All editors of newspapers in small communities do not wish to make enemies out of a single subscriber. If your first letter is not published phone the editor and ask WHY? Most frequently, they will inform you that your next letter will be published.

Gerald K. smith constructed the largest statue of Jesus Christ in America before his death in Eureka Springs, Ark. Along with Mr. Smith's Passion Play thousands of Christian tourists are drawn to this section of the state every summer. This is where the Carol County Tribune is published. A loyal supporter, Orman Watson wrote the letter which is reproduced on this page. Note it gives the full address of the NSRP and many inquiries were received as a result.

Join States Rights Party

Dear Editor:

Once a Democrat, once a Republican, once independent, I changed by voter registration each time I realized that our "leaders" are more concerned about special interest groups (like Rockefellers, oil companies, Jewish-International bankers) and the welfare of foreign countries (like Brazil, Israel, Panama, etc.) than the interests of the U.S. taxpayers.

The sooner we wake up and cast off this phony two-party swindle, the better off we will be. What law says only two parties?

The controllers of the two parties make it as hard as possible for another party to be formed. They are afraid they'll lose control of the politicans if tweedle-dee (Democrats) and tweedle-dum, (Republicans) have to compete with a third national party.

In my years of searching, I have found a party that speaks up for Americans, the middle class and working people. It's a small but growing party. I refer to the National States Rights Party, and anyone who would like to know more can write to Box 1211, Marietta, GA 30061 for free information.

However, if you are not conservative and pro-American, you won't find a home in the National States Rights Party.

Sincerely yours, for States Rights and a free America.

Dear Editor:

I was once a Democrat, once a Republican, once an Independent. I changed my voter registration each time I realized that our leaders care more about special interest groups and the welfare of foreign countries than the interest of American. The sooner we wake up and cast off this two party swindle, the better off we will be. What law says we may have only two parties? Why isn't something done to make it easier for additional parties to form?

In my years of searching I have found a party that speaks up for Americans, the middle class workers, men and women. It is a small but growing party– The National States Right Party.

Anybody who would like to know more can write P.O. Box 1211, Marietta, Georgia 30061 for free literature. However, if you are not conservative and pro-American you will not find a home in The National States Right Party.

Letters To The Editor:

Radio - TV Discriminates Against Whites

Open Letter
To Civil Rights
Atty. Gen. Reynolds

Editor,
The Thunderbolt:

Radio Station WWRL (1560 AM) is officially called, "The Black Radio Network" and its programs are designed for only blacks. A "White Radio Network" I say would not be permitted in NYC and YOU KNOW IT. It IS a Civil Rights issue since it denies the right of white people to have radio and TV stations only for their own kind yet permits blacks this privilege. I already have contacted Channel 13 TV and requested they cover white groups since they cover the NAACP and Urban League conventions FREE. THEY REFUSED. They also refused to have programs devoted to white history, culture etc. Of course, the NYC authorities would say it would bring bloodshed to have white only radio and TV programs since the Negroes and Communists would surely attempt bodily harm against the owners and workers of these stations. It IS very much a civil rights issue not one for the FCC only. The authorities will protect black stations but NOT white stations.

There are many black periodicals on the newsstands here in NYC. Just to name a few: "Black Family," "Jet," "Ebony," "Sepia," "Amsterdam News," "Black Enterprise," "Black Hair Care," "Africa News," "Blacktress," "Chocolate Singles" — the list is endless. I do not know of any white only periodicals. DO YOU? The courageous Washington newspaper, "The Spotlight" has a difficult time making it to newsstands since Jews and Negroes threaten the vendors and are almost impossible to find in NYC. In addition a KKK or Aryan Nations or NSRP newspaper would not be permitted. The Dept. of Justice does not "protect all persons in this country irrespective of race or color."

In the past I have written the Department of Education in regards to black schools. I pointed out to them their statement, "Segregated Education is illegal." I asked them for the names and addresses of the black schools, how many non-negroes attend, whether they are tax exempt or not etc. NOT A WORD FROM THEM IN OVER A YEAR. In Pres. Reagan's budget last winter I noticed an item, "aid for Negro colleges". Kindly explain why we don't have aid to white colleges since many are in dire fiscal straits.

There are in the USA literally THOUSANDS of minority groups of all shades, sizes and description. They are permitted and encouraged to flourish. These groups often EXCLUDE whites. There are very few white organizations and, of course, they are "racist."

In the past two and one-half years over 15 whites were slain by blacks in riots. In addition many whites were cruelly raped and beaten and to my knowledge not a single instance of the Justice Department prosecuting for violation.

Hawaii Horrors

Editor, The Thunderbolt:

Whites comprise only 25 to 30% of the Hawaiian population. They are held in contempt, hatred and literally discriminated against. About 70% of recorded and documented violent and property crimes are committed against Whites by non-Whites. Whites there are disparagingly called "Haoles" by the coloreds. It's even worse for White tourists — just ask my sister who was raped there by six coloreds in an alley on a main street in broad daylight! They hurt her so bad physically that she is ruined for life, but that's nothing compared to what those animals did to her mentally!

Whites, Unite!!

Editor, The Thunderbolt:

I believe our White Power Movement is growing stronger every day. The majority of White people are fed up with the integration and liberalism that the government has been cramming down our throats.

Keep up the good work down there in Georgia. It's time for us rebels everywhere to raise the Confederate Battle Flag up North and tell the federal government that we've had enough. It is time to lead our Aryan people on to victory.

N.L., Pittsburgh, Pa.

California Engulfed
By Scum

Editor, The Thunderbolt:

In addition to 90,000 Israelis, there are tens of thousands of Russian-speaking Jewish immigrants all over L.A. — especially in the Hollywood area. And some of these Russian-speaking people are working while our Whites of old blood are jobless and on the streets with nowhere to go. Our tax dollars, however, support the Russian Jews who aren't working. Welfare booklets in Los Angeles are now being printed in Russian. During the '50's, 85% of all people arrested and sent to jail or executed as Soviet spies were racial Jews. What TIME doesn't say should show you what TIME is!!

J.B., Los Angeles, Calif.

Jobs For Coloreds First

Editor, The Thunderbolt:

I have talked to younger (I'm a grandmother) people about the way things were and compare it to now, and most of them are amazed. What can we common people do to wake up these youths?

I think some have found this recession hurts Whites. They find the blacks and browns are working in state and federal jobs such as unemployment offices.

They push the Whites back and contact their own to get jobs. Maybe our young people will now understand what affirmative action really is and how it is affecting them personally.

Mrs. V.F., Ariz.

Thunderbolt Leaves Liberal Speechless

Editor, The Thunderbolt:

I cannot really tell you how important The Thunderbolt is to me. If it were not for your paper, I would have only the pablum handed out by the Establishment media. I fear it is true that we have one of the most highly censored media in the world.

I showed a copy of The Thunderbolt to one of my "liberal" friends and he commented that "hate must be very profitable." I then asked him to point out to me one item in the paper that was not true. He could not do it. How sad that we have come to the point that we fear to read the truth!

W.D., Nevada

Distribute
The Thunderbolt

Editor, The Thunderbolt:

I have been reading and following your Thunderbolt newspaper with keen interest. I'm glad you're publishing the truth, for White people are sleeping in this country. The mass distribution of The Thunderbolt and other White power publications is our only hope of reuniting our race, and effectively fighting the Zionist / Communist propaganda. I would encourage everyone to buy mass quantities of The Thunderbolt, and distribute in our neighborhoods, churches, lodges, clubs, V.F.W. centers, and public places like airports, bus terminals, shopping centers, drive-in movies — any place is good to spread White news.

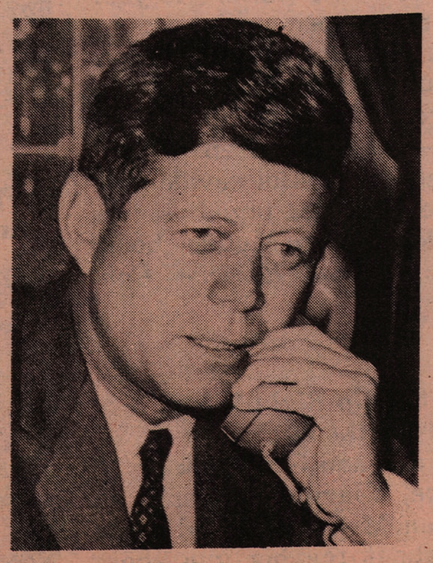
Kennedy Attacked Mississippi Not Cuba



Pres. John F. Kennedy on phone during U.S. Army invasion of Miss.

The Self-Serving
Kennedy Tapes

Pres. Nixon's embarrassing tapes were made public as have the few made by Roosevelt. But the Kennedy Library, after 20 years of study, decided to only reveal 5% of the tapes Kennedy made in the Oval Office of the White House. They are strictly self-serving and try and place Kennedy (and Teddy, of course) strongly on the side of the blacks. The Bay of Pigs invasion of Cuba is the most mysterious part of the Kennedy Administration. To this very day the public is still in the dark as to exactly what agreements Kennedy made to Khrushchev to entice him to pull his missiles out of Cuba.

In fact the tapes deal mainly with the invasion of Mississippi to force negro James Meredith into the University of Miss. Gov. Ross Barnett twice told Kennedy to withdraw Meredith because the people were "not ready to accept him." Kennedy asked his brother, then Attorney General Bobby Kennedy, about his power to arrest Gov. Barnett and Gen. Edwin A. Walker (who was at "Ole Miss" urging the White students to resist). Kennedy remarked; "Imagine that S.O.B. having been commander of a division."

Two people died during the fighting when Kennedy sent 41,000 troops and U.S. Marshals to occupy that part of Miss. In the dead of night Gen. Walker was flown to the Springfield, Mo. mental hospital where Kennedy tried to have him declared insane. The National States Rights Party sent members to the hospital where they picketed around the clock until the public outcry became so great the General was freed.

Still Kennedy laughed when he finally forced race-mixing on the White people and his voice joyfully heard on the tapes states, "I haven't had such an interesting time since the Bay of Pigs."

Kennedy felt pleased in forcing integration upon a prostrate, oppressed people, using an occupation army and injuring many innocents. But his sell-out of a free Cuba was a joke! Thus the tip of the iceberg emerges into the Kennedy mystique and the "heritage" educators claim they left America. Thank God this "Camelot" is dead politically in America.

Cuban Refugees Cause
Chicago Crime Wave

Chicago has over 500,000 illegal Mexican aliens along with many others but the 3,500 Cubans are by far committing more violent crimes than any other group. Despite their small numbers, 21.4% of all criminal acts in Chicago are traced to the Cubans who came over on the Mariel boat lift. It should be recalled that Pres. Carter welcomed to our shore the worst criminals Fidel Castro was sweeping out of his prisons. Now many cities in America are suffering.

I am a loyal White American who believes in Christianity and the preservation of the White Race. I further believe that the White majority is entitled to protection from job discrimination; the guarantee of freedom, life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and all other rights as handed down by our founding fathers as part of our traditions and heritage.

I am opposed to communistic Zionism and all other anti-Christ ideology. I believe that the invasion of America by illegal immigrants must be stopped. I feel obligated to save our national birthright for generations of Americans yet to be born. I believe I can best achieve these goals by becoming a member of "America's Largest Third Party."

I understand the NSRP is a Political Party, independent of any other organization, secret order, political, parent, ecclesiastical body, or any other group.

By Thomas E. Watson

Tom Watson was one of the most famous political leaders in Georgia history. The main statue on the grounds of the Georgia State Capitol is that of Tom Watson. Watson was a world traveler and famous author and he studied the life of the negro in Africa. His prose on this subject is the most revealing and startling we have ever read. An appendix in this book gives the Belgian report on atrocities committed by negroes when they revolted in 1960 and sought to torture and kill all Whites. This sensational eye-opener is free to all NEW subscribers using this form or requesting "The African."
